RADIO INTERESTS HAZELTON RECRUIT

Pursuing an interest in radio mechanics which has engrossed him for some time, Frederick Ernest Falconer, 17, of Hazelton, arrived in the city Saturday to enlist as a trainee in the Canadian Army Technical Training Corps.

He will leave tonight for Vancouver, where as a soldier-student he will be posted to a training centre to take an intensive 10-month course to qualify him as an army tradesman.

He is the son of Mrs. C. M. Falconer of Hazelton.

CROP REPORT

Good crops of apples, peaches, prunes and plums are maturing under very favourable conditions and the picking of the early varieties has commenced. The pear crop is also good and the fruit is sizing well. A very heavy crop of good quality apricots has been garnered. Small fruits are plentiful and are moving in volume. The tomato crop is good and canneries are commencing operations.

Potatoes are fair to good, oninons fair. Other vegetables generally are good and are moving in volume. A good crop of hops is indicated. Grain crops generally are fair to good. Pasturage is only fair, but is improving; recent rains were beneficial.

Grasshoppers are doing considerable damage in some northern sections of the Okanagan Valley. Other pests are normal. Irrigation water is now considered ample and crops generally have benefited from recent rains

GOOD PROGRAM—

Terrace Rangers Win Northern B.C. Softball Invitation Tournament

TERRACE, Aug. 21—In a fitting climax to a fast series, Terrace Rangers defeated Port Edward, 2 to 1, in 11 innings at Terrace yesterday to win the Northern B.C. Softball Invitation Tournament.

Rangers advanced to the final round only after downing Soo Suds, 8 to 6, on Saturday. In another game the same day, Port Edward gained access to the final by trouncing Air Force, 10 to 1.

Ed. Selyan, supervisor of the National Y.M.C.A. War Services at Terrace arranged the tourney. The games were played at Ranger Park.

The "Y" representatives from Prince Rupert who made the trip included Don Forward, Chester Le Maistre, Frank Fox, Lee Van Luven and "Scotty" Malcolm.

A big dance Saturday night was attended by Wrens, C.W.A.C.'s and W.D.'s from here. Music was supplied by the nine-piece Soo Suds orchestra, directed by Cpl. Wiebe.

Picnic Platters

Swift's Table-Ready Meats are the perfect answer to the picnic problem

Very few of us have either the time or the inclination these days to make the elaborate preparation our parents considered essential for a picnic. And yet the occasional meal out of doors—even if it be only in one's backyard—is good for health, appetite and morale too. So if you feel the picnic urge coming on, just slip over to your neighbourhood store and make your selection from the wide array there of Swift's Premium Table-Ready Meats. Add a crisp lettuce or two; a bottle of home made pickles, a paper containet of potato salad—you can make your own, see page ... a loaf of bread . . . and all set for an enjoyable meal with no more feathers.

Martha

P.S.—Don't forget the

MARTHA LOGAN'S POTATO SALAD
1 cup celery finely cut
¼ cup minced onion
1 cup French Dressing
4 cups diced cooked potatoes
Salt and pepper
Put chopped onions and dressing stand one hour in French Dressing. Add cooked potatoes and other ingredients lightly . . . season further if required.
