UNPLEASANT NAZI DOINGS

Unusual Picture Depicts Nefariousness of Adolf Hitler and His Low Down Crew

Actual inside happenings in Germany before, during and after the Nazi putsch are portrayed in the unusual dramatic picture "The Hitler Gang" which is being screened today and tomorrow at the Capitol Theatre here. The expose of the nefarious activities carried on by Adolf Hitler and his low-down Nazi crew consisting of Heinrich Himmler, Rudolph Hess, Herman Goering and Joseph Goebbels, whose roles are said to be played to perfection by specially selected actors, is not a pretty sight, nor is it intended to be, but, withal, the picture provides an insight to the background from which Fascism arose.

The swift pace of the film leaves audiences breathless, according to reports, since the action takes in the beginning of Hitler's rise to power, continuing up until the present time. All the dramatic elements of national and international politics are spot-lighted with many interesting revelations. Many of the unknown incidents, long kept under lock and key in Nazi vaults, are brought out into the open. Nazi viciousness and cruelty, oppression of race and religion, torture of innocent victims and other acts of barbarism are shown.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A.
(By Dorothy Garbutt)

In no time at all I'll be making those knotted rope thingammynets that Charlie Webster of the Navy makes so quickly and so very cleverly. I had my first lesson from Charlie the other day and made five whole knots. You use sort of an outsize tatting needle made of plastic and you wind this in and out, over and under in many a devious way. All I have to learn now is to make my knots all one size and not to knot them over a rounded chair rung which makes it necessary to unpick all of them when the lessons is over.

Three service babies were reported last week by Mrs. Stuart, our Y.W.C.A. hospital visitor. Two of them were Dominion Day babies. Heading the list was little Dawn Rosine Lauret, born to Paul and Ivy Lauret and sister to little Lee Lauret. Dawn was born on July 1 in Vancouver and weighed nine pounds. Paul and Ivy and Lee lived here all last year, going to Vancouver only a few months ago. Paul was cook at area officers' mess for a long time. The meaning of Dawn is the beginning or unfolding and Rosine is fair as a rose.

Master Roderick Carlos von Auron made his appearance also on Dominion Day at high noon, and weighed six pounds, fifteen ounces. His father is Lieutenant Colonel von Auron with the American forces in the Pacific war zone. His mother, as you all know, was Chrissie MacLeod of Prince Rupert. Roderick means rich in advice, generous counsellor, famous king, while Carlos means strong and manly.

On July 2 at 1:30 p.m. Robert Roy Callioux was born to Private and Mrs. Robert Callioux of the R.C.A.S.C. No weight was given for this young man, so lets say seven pounds four ounces on spec. Robert means bright in counsel and Roy means a king. My we have a lot to do with royalty in today's names haven't we?

Well, everyone, congratulations ahd much happiness in your children from all of us!

SMITHERS

Pilot Officer Kenneth D. Houghton is spending two week's leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Houlton.

Flying Officer J. F. T Beesley, of Kamloops, formerly of Smithers, was reported killed while on air operations overseas on June 6.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Abramson left last week for Vancouver for an extended holiday.

The Smithers town council recently endorsed the action taken by the Prince Rupert city council urging the provincial government to complete the Skeena River highway between Hazelton and Kitwanga.

SOO-SUD NOTES

Rifleman Wallace James Roussain of Korah Township has been killed in action overseas, his mother, Mrs. Norman Rathbone, has been advised. He enlisted in the Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury Regiment in September, 1939, and went overseas with the first contingent.

Ten supervised playgrounds will be operated in Sault Ste. Marie this summer vacation to provide recreation for girls and boys of the community who are unable to leave the city. Canadian Girls in Training will take an active part in directing activities.

ARMY SHOW GOES OVER

Cock-Eyed Fantasy at Naval Drill Hall for Benefit of Forces

A sizeable part of the city's population—military, naval and otherwise—was taken on a globe-trotting tour at the week-end to such places as Hollywood, Italy, Russia, a Cairo bazaar and the back room office of the Never Sleep Detective Agency, presumably somewhere in Canada. Their passport to this cock-eyed Cook's tour was a ticket to the various performances of the Army Show in the Navy Drill Hall. The show is being repeated at further presentations this week.

Focal characters of the show are a couple of soldiers on embarkation leave and a gypsy fortune teller who assists them in getting into a greater variety of places than is usually available.

Before her den on a waterfront street she takes Red and the Sergeant for a ride with her crystal ball.

First flashback is to pay a visit to Red's wife who is negotiating with the Never Sleep Detective Agency to put an investigator on Red's trail to prove his unfaithfulness. When the detective names a price she throws a hysteric, then virtuously avers that she will raise the exorbitant amount by borrowing it from her boy friend.

Startling things occur in Hollywood. Gypsy Rose Lee is caught wearing a bath robe, Betty Grable sings complete with floral bathing suit and parasol. However, the height of wishful thinking is exceeded when Frank Swoonatra dies of gunshot wounds before the microphone.

In a classic garden in Italy, the Sergeant's C.W.A.C. sweetheart sings such Neapolitan ditties as "Somewhere There's Music."

A realistic tableau entitled "Mother Russia" is preceded by an erudite discussion between the gypsy and the soldiers on the difference between "sleigh" and "steps." At the conclusion of the tableau Red and the Sergeant find themselves on a war-devastated steppes and ing from the cold. The g then dreams up a group of dancers whose balalaikas a a warm appeal to both soldi

The Cairo scene is introd by two soldiers on the e the El Alamein battle, whe soldier tells the other wh Cairo bazaar is like. In this it consists of a group of m skirted dancers with Red the Sergeant wandering aro atively among them.
