Whifflets
From The Waterfront

Falling off from last week's near-peak level, halibut arrivals for the week ending Friday totalled only 236,000 pounds—the lighest so far this season. This brings the season's catch to August 18 to 8,106,300 pounds.

Six American boats and one Canadian vessel arrived this week. The former brought in 206,000 pounds, and the latter 30,000 pounds. The heaviest cargo was unloaded Wednesday from the American vessel Martindale.

Up to Friday, American boats had brought in 3,004,500 pounds, and Canadian boats 5,101,800 pounds for the season.

More than three-fifths of the canned salmon packed in B.C. during the week ending August 12 was packed in District 2, which includes Prince Rupert, according to the weekly summary issued by the supervisor of fisheries, Vancouver.

Of the 494,533 cases packed along the coast, 324,742 cases came from Area 2. The Naas and Skeena districts accounted for 180,891 cases.

With the decline of the sockeye run, the pack of spring salmon moved into first position, formerly occupied by sockeye in District 2. During the week, 135,530 cases of springs were packed, and 120,029 cases of sockeye.

However, the sockeye pack on the whole coast was considerably ahead of the spring pack. More than 225,000 cases of sockeye were put up, as against 170,000 cases of springs.

Hilarious Comedy Of Adventure is Capitol Feature

The picture parallels the adventures the four stars met with in their tour of England and North Africa to entertain the fighting men. It features them as themselves.

On more than one occasion the Hollywood actresses had to seek the protection of slit trenches when German planes attacked camps where they were on show. Most of the slit trenches they found in North Africa were seven feet deep and were built by the Germans. When bombs exploded the walls bulged and then subsided as though they were built of rubber.

"Four Jills in a Jeep," 20th Century-Fox's song - and - star studded story of the gayest, grandest adventures four jeep-happy girls ever met, will be shown Monday and Tuesday at the Capitol Theatre.

This merry hit features Kay Francis, Carole Landis, Martha Raye, Mitzi Mayfair as the four girls who passed up the generals for the privates, with Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra, John Harvey, Phil Silver, and introduces to the screen, Dick Haymes, radio singing star.

Alice Faye, Betty Grable, Carmen Miranda and George Jessel, who acts as master of ceremonies, appear in the picture as guest stars.

9TH COAST WINS CLOSE VICTORY OVER DRY DOCK

Softball fans were treated to a high grade of ball yesterday evening when 9th Coast squad eked out a 4-3 win in 10 innings over Dry Dock to move from the Area Softball League quarter-finals in the semi-finals. It was their second game.

They are expected to meet Port Edward, winners over the Navy this week in quarter-finals play.

Dry Dock and 9th Coast played spectacular ball last night with pitchers, batters and fieldmen all turning in bang-up performances.

The play-off series has been organized by the Y.M.C.A. Special Services.
