ALBERTA GIRL PRETTY BRIDE

Miss Ena Gruenka and United States Soldier Married

The Y.M.C.A. was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday evening when Ena, daughter of Mrs. P. H. Gruenka of Naples, Alberta, became the bride of Cpl. Claude Rogers of Fairview, Missouri. Capt. W. H. Kerley, area padre, officiated. The bride was given in carriage by John Montgomery, Y.M.C.A. senior supervisor.

By a flower-banked altar the dainty bride was lovely in a white sheer gown of simple lines with a heart-shaped neckline. Her dark curls were framed by a coronet of orange-blossom buds which cascaded a full veil of embroidered net. An old-fashioned bouquet of pink rosebuds and white chrysanthemums with heather for luck completed her costume.

The charming young bridesmaid, Iris Hanson, attired in a floor-length dress of shell pink, led the bridal party. Her flowers carried out the color motif of the wedding.

Emil Engman, United States Army, was groomsman.

Friends of the bride and groom extended best wishes to the happy couple at the reception following the ceremony. The guests were residents of Prince Rupert, members of the U. S. Army and staff of the Y.M.C.A.

For the next few months Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will be residents of the city.

TITLED INDIANS

The first English title in America was conferred on an Indian. Wanchese, chief of a North Carolina tribe, was made "Lord of Manteo" after his visit to England with Raleigh's colonists.
