CONVENTION IS BEING PLANNED

Local Chamber of Commerce Launches Arrangements for Associated Boards Meet

Active planning for the program in connection with the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia to be held in Prince Rupert August 7 and 8 got under way when the special convention committee went into session yesterday afternoon. Accommodation for all activities of the convention will be found in the Civic Centre. In addition to the straight business sessions, there will be luncheons, dinners, receptions and a dance with other organizations, in addition to the local Chamber itself, expected to participate. The convention will bring to the city delegates from all central interior points and a substantial representation from southeastern Alaska cities is also expected.

The convention committee of the Prince Rupert Chamber consists of W. J. Scott, chairman, W. F. Stone, Arthur Brooksbank, G. E. Mitchell and E. D. Forward.

CANINE LESSON FOR JAY WALKERS—An Englishman will sometimes respect the judgment of a dog while ignoring that of a human—even if that human be a modern Solomon. So the London county council used this old English sheepdog, "Bobs," to give Londoners a lesson in traffic safety. The dog is shown crossing at the proper pedestrian crossing in a London street after he had waited patiently until the traffic ifficer had put up the stop sign for the traffic.

BOY SCOUT WEEK HERE

Display of Activities Next Monday Night to be One of Features

Boy Scout Week observance in Prince Rupert next week will be featured by an exhibition of Scouts', Cubs' and Girl Guide activities to be staged in the auditorium of Booth Memorial School next Monday evening when parents of the Scouts, Cubs and Girl Guides will be in attendance to see for themselves what goes on. At this meeting presentations of the district commissioner's warrant to Lieut. Col. Keith Dixon will be formally made. Arrangements for Boy Scout Week here were launched at a meeting of executive members of the local Association, under chairmanship of F. Earl Anfield, Sunday night.

Suggestion has been made that the use of the Kinsmen's camp at Lakelse Lake near Terrace might be obtained for a Boy Scout camp this summer.

The explosion knocked him unconsiious. As he did not show up in town early on Saturday morning, Dave McWhinney went to see him about ten o'clock and found him still unconscious. Typhoid fever and diphtheria are also rampant. The seriousness of the situation is made more complicated through shortage of food and penicillin.
