FRANCOIS LAKE

Although there is a good deal of water on the lake ice it is still safe for cars to cross. Water is pouring into the lake in streams from the hills and a few more days thawing will take most of the snow away.

Archie Weatherspoon has returned from Vancouver where he had medical attention. He has been away since before Christmas.

District Agriculturalist George Axen assisted by Ray Tomblin gave an educational show in the hall on Monday evening. It was much appreciated.

A woman went to buy a drinking trough for her dog and the shopkeeper asked her if she would like one with the inscription, "For the dog."

"It really doesn't matter," she replied. "My husband never drinks water and the dog can't read."

SUCKERS' HIDEOUTS

FASHION SHOW AT TERRACE DRAWS CAPACITY HOUSE; COLORFUL EVENT

TERRACE—Against a dazzling backdrop of the newest fabrics in silk and cotton, spring's latest fashions passed in a glamorous review before an appreciative audience on Wednesday evening at the Terrace Theatre. The models, all charming members of Terrace society from the tiniest toddler to the graceful matron, displayed an assortment of clothing which would gladden the heart of any woman or girl. The show was entitled "Springtime Rveiew" and was staged by Skeena Mercantile Department Store under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. G. McAdams.

The show opened as little Darlene Morrow, dressed as master of ceremonies, in a tall top hat and cane, addressed the audience over a miniature microphone. The first feature showed negligees and morning dresses and children's play clothes. This was followed by sports clothes for the teen ager, displayed to perfection by beautiful teen age models. This display featured special outfits brought direct from the east and in such delightful colors as Orange Copper and Majesty Red.

Bathing beauties in the newest Hollywood designed costumes for swimming and beach wear came next, and "Gals in Calico" illustrated the crisp, cool wear for summer in cottons.

In quick succession, models came onto the stage wearing beautiful flowered jerseys in a colorful array of afternoon gowns.

The toddlers next made their appearance in sweet little party dresses in pastel shades.

Striped and checkered jersey silks, also crepes, were shown in many delightful styles, with an outstanding dress in pale grey in the shade known as Sea Foam with mauve accessories. This was a special design by Maurice of Toronto and excited much admiration especially among the male members of the audience.

Adding to the attraction of the evening was a ballet scene with the lovely ballerina, Mrs. Eva Pache, as the artiste. As she danced around the stage, she touched with her fairy wand a number of huge bandboxes, from which a model arose, to display the latest fashion in Easter bonnets.

Suits came next on the program and showed many new style, such as wallow-tail, push-up sleeve, in many spring colors.

Then came coats, featuring the new shortie, in several styles.

The final display on the evenisg's revue were beautiful evening gowns, in many shades, featuring nylon net skirts and evening skirts with cocktail blouses.

DELIGHTFUL MUSIC PROGRAM FEATURED

Interspersed throughout the evening's presentation of fashions was delightful music by Mrs. B. Barr at the piano, accompanied by J. B. MacKay on the violin, and the ladies' choir which sang such numbers as "Zip a Dee Doo Dah," "It Might as Well Be Spring" and "Easter Parade." Marline Michiel pleased with her tap dance and other lovely solos were sung by Mrs. Robert Squires, and Mrs. Lloyd Johnstone. Helen Summerville and Edna Toop sang a duet, "It's Only a Paper Moon," and Alf Yoxall, attired in full Scottish regalia, sang a comic song. Little tots dressed as Easter chicks with a large Easter egg containing another tot, gave a dainty novelty dance.

Finally, the whole ensemble of ladies taking part, with the Canadian flag as a background, grouped themselves around the stage, with the soloist, Mrs. Harry Seaton, singing "Land of Hope and Glory" and the Terrace Ladies' Choir accompanying the chorus. Mrs. Seaton is a new bride in Terrace and sang charmingly.

During the evening, mention was made of the help given to Mr. and Mrs. McAdams in their presentation of "Springtime Revue" and everyone received a warm "Thank you." Every lady who entered was given a dainty souvenir of perfume. A door prize was also given, and Mr. McAdams stated that $100 or more would be donated to the new hospital as net proceeds of the evening.

The models taking part were Misses Phyllis Little, Mary Little, Helen Summerville, Edna Toop, Pat Tumilson, Judy Curtes, Kay Williscroft, Dolly Haugland, Jean Kirkcaldy, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Kirkcaldy, Mrs. J. Gordon, and children Judy and Freddie Barr, Carl McWhinney, Margorie McInnes, Darlene Morrow, Sandra Pache, Marlyn and Tommy DeKergommeaux.

St. Patrick's Day At Francois Lake

Fine Celebration of Anniversary of Eire's Saint

FRANCOIS LAKE — A dance sponsored by the Farmers' Institute on St. Patrick's Day went off successfully. The hall was appropriately decorated with green and white streamers, shamrocks and Irish hats.

After supper at midnight there was a short program including: song by Hugh Neave, "violin" solo on a saw by Gordon Funnell, song by Pat Peebles, accompanied by herself on the guitar, Irish songs by Hall Kelly "The Hat My Father Wore."

The Irish folk were called onto the platform and were given green Irish hats before being asked to lead in community singing of some favorite Irish songs. The four Irish colleens who sang were lovely in their green dresses.

The dance broke up at 3:30 with everyone reporting having had a good time.

THEY ESCAPE US

The human eye cannot distinguish an error of less than 10 seconds of an arc.

CRISP, CUT-AWAY SUMMER COTTONS, fashioned for after-dark dancing, show off the loveliness of lithe lines. Capri of New York accents a slender figure with this wasp-waist piqué original and dramatizes the bosom with delicate embroidery.

If you want to look your youngest, slimmest, and loveliest in the new fashions . . . you must watch your diet. And, in any safe diet to gain and keep a lovely figure, you should eat certain special foods because of their "protective" qualities.

That is why Kellogg's All-Bran is included in the new scientific weight-control menus. All-Bran is made only from the outer layers of the wheat grain. This is the vital part so rich in iron and certain other "protective" food elements your body must have if you want to keep your vitality . . . your very joy in life.

You will be glad to know, too, that All-Bran is guaranteed, on a double-your-money-back basis, to keep you regular naturally. Natural regularity is always advisable, diet or no diet. Ask your grocer for a package of Kellogg's All-Bran today.
