...s of school principals ... that enrolment at the ...ols during April was 1,089, with 57 more enrolled at the four district schools. Attendance percentages in the city schools were down in some instances due to sickness among the pupils.

At Booth Memorial High School, enrollment was 448 with 237 in the junior high and 210 in the senior, according to Principal W. W. C. O'Neill. Attendance was 88 per cent.

Enrolment at Borden Street elementary was 194, with 92 per cent attendance, Principal J. S. Wilson reported.

Conrad Street School enrolment stood at 188 during April, and attendance was 81 per cent, Principal T. G. Bateman stated. This school had 88 girls enrolled and 100 boys.

Enrolment at King Edward School, according to Principal R. G. Moore, was 259, with attendance at 85 per cent. A large number of children suffered from colds and mild influenza, thus reducing attendance during the month.

In the rural areas, Digby Island school had an enrolment of 20, Port Essington 13, Port Simpson 12 and Port Edward 12.
