SHOPPING

It's been a wonderful week for shopping and my tour has taken me from one end of town to the other. There are lots of exciting, interesting things in the shops now and more coming in each day. Several of the windows are like spring blossoms and others are dressed for the occasion of Boy Scout Week.

Did you get down to NORTHWAY UPHOLSTERY to see the Panelrama Mandu fabrics? Something else is new at the Weinreich shop this week and it is the addition of Antron Nylon Frieze upholstery fabrics. They're lovely and as new as tomorrow! The samples include traditional weaves, Italian brocaues, damasks and boucles. This material has a new clarity of color, is closely woven with a high percentage of nylon and is very resistant to wear. It takes between two and three weeks to have a chesterfield re-upholstered and Northway are experts in this field. They can make old fashioned suites into furniture with modern inspired stylings. For bedroom carpets the latest line is wall-to-wall covering by Kraus. It comes in pastel colors of mauve, green, yellows and you'd think.

is cut in high-low fashion. The price for this velvety, soft dream . . . not nearly so much as

5-4-3-2-1-0-Ignition on-Blast off! It's the space age. The poor old six-guns have been heaved in a corner and neglected. The kids are with it and so is the VARIETY STORE with their Revell models for junior astronauts. Jack has "Man Into Space Gift Set," "Space Shuttlecraft," "Moonship," "Knike Hercules," "Helios Landing Craft" and the U.S. carriers Ranger, Essex, Missouri and Arizona. These are just a very few of the many, many, scaled to official plan, models that are on sale at half price at the Variety Store. They also have all the necessary cements, separate bottles of paint and sets of various colors, brushes for finishing, and even a "Soft Spray 'Namel" in a pressurized container. That's at the Variety Store, the hobbyist's headquarters.

ALBERTA MARKET has a winner for their grocery hamper draw, It's Mrs. C. E. Olsen of 815 Fraser Street. Imagine winning a case full of exotic delicacies from foreign lands, caviar and anchovies, imported cheeses, fancy biscuits and cocktail snacks. Remember, I told you last week that Secondo Visentin was putting in new refrigerators and coolers. Well, there was a delay somewhere along the line and they haven't arrived to date. It will be sometime next week before they are installed and then they'll have fresh fruit, vegetables and meats for their customers. Have you been in Alberta Market since his opening. It's a bright clean store, with shelves attractively displayed with the results of his recent shopping trip to Vancouver. Watch for his ad next week. There are lots of specials coming up.

It's N.D.P.—N.D.P.—N.D.P.— No, it's not a political rally yell, it's SIMPSON'S-SEARS Kenmore sewing machines that are getting the cheers. There's an extra loud one, too, for the Kenmore Deluxe model that Alf Bredefeld has on sale now at $99.88. The regular price is $139. It's a bargain and what's more they'll give a demonstration with any machine right in the store. This 16-disc deluxe beauty is fully automatic, has push button reverse, automatic darning release, built in sewing light and lots of accessories and gadgets for intricate stitches and fancy sewing. Did you know that all Kenmore sewing machine heads carry a 20-year guarantee? It's true! The portable zig-zag machines, regularly $99.95 are now $79, and further there's N.D.P., no down payment required with monthly terms as low as seven dollars per month. Call in. They'll be glad to see you at Simpson's-Sears.

Oh shucks, another run! It just doesn't pay to buy expensive stockings. Anyhow, who can afford too? Not I, when perfectly lovely hose, 400 needle, 15 denier seamless are on sale at UNIVERSAL, three pair for $1.49. They last just as long and look just as nice as more expensive hosiery. Doug has them advertised this week on the marquee above the door. Have you noticed that sign? Lots of times I go straight by it and miss good things right in front of my eyes. But, one item too good to miss at Universal this week is the Lady Anne bulky knit sweaters. They're button coat and bolero style. Just right to slip over a light dress or blouse and they're definitely "stay whites." Price $10.95 and $11.95. Just in: Naugalite imitation leather and suede jackets for wee ones, sizes two to six-x. They're cute, in red, blue, black and brown, dressy and yet skookum enough for rough, tumble wear. That's at the Universal and I'm not going to tell you about the La Via and Tan Jay suits. Those you must see for yourself!

PHILPOTT, EVITT & CO. LTD. are having a sale. I was down there today and it's a jim-dandy and just in time for spring paint-up, clean-up. They're clearing out Pittsburgh and C.I.L. paints, mostly interior satins and enamels, and the reductions are $3 on gallons and 75 cents on quarts. For some time now they've been handling Flo-Glaze paints and the color range is fantastic. It's possible to match and/or complement any drapery material or color scheme. Oh, by the way, if you've run up against and and and are are the or charge at Philpott E itt. She is a competent interior decorator and a competent interior decorator and the same of the sam

The number to call is 2101 for information and expert advice, and for all your paint, supplies and building materials the address is 900 2nd Avenue West, Philpott Evitt & Co. Ltd.

Warning , . . Don't do it! . . . Don't let your husband teach you to drive. Save the family squabbles and let Jean do it. Jean Stevenson, that is of JEAN'S DRIVING SCHOOL. She has the experience, the qualifications, the dual control car, and best of all, she has patience. I was speaking to her last weekend and she was saying that if sufficient people are interested she will hold another night school class beginning March 1st. There's one in progress now. This class is instruction, in driving theory, rules of the road and so on, and films from the Workmen's Compensation Board on Safe Driving will be shown. Whether you're interested in actual driving lessons, the theory course or just brushing up on rusty driving technique, give Jean a call at 4837 and you'll be assured of making appointments that are mutually satisfactory.

Bulgarian, Italian, Irish, Japanese, Spanish, French . . . You name it, they've got it! or will have in mighty short order. That's RUPERT RADIO & ELECTRIC'S Record Bar. Ask Jackie, she'll show you all the new ones. To name just a very few, "The Greek Way" with Gus Vali and Orchestra; "Memories of Norway," "Scandinavian Dance Music," "Hawaiian Punch" with the Mauna-loa Islanders and of course, the Alfred Apaka records; the Mexican 50 Guitars of Tommy Garret in "Go South of the Border," and the new Great Songs of Italy by Robertino "O Sole Mio." There's music to please everyone at Rupert Radio & Electric, Say, have you heard "The Mad Gypsy" record by Florika Šava? It's violin music that will make the shivers run up and down your spine.

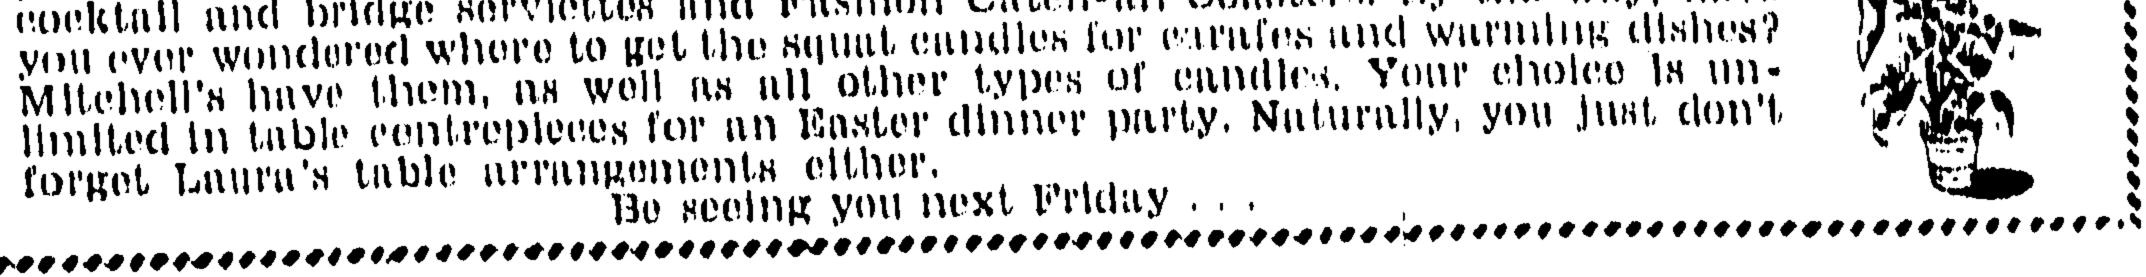

For the well dressed man's Easter (it won't be long now), or for everyday, they've got them, the suit, the coat, the hat, the shirts, at Wm. F. STONE'S, naturally. I was in their store on Monday, just to browse around, and Walter was showing me the new arrivels in men's sports jackets. They're hard wearing, 100 per cent wool Harrotex Tweed from the British Isles and styled in the London look, with natural shoulder lines. These jackets are a perfect complement to the Warren K. Cook slim line slacks. In sport shirts, Arrow and Currie have brought out the Taper look with button down colors, plain and figured materials. Really something to hit you eyes are the Lancer Poncho shirts. They're cut to a V, front and back in multi-color stripes and can be worn in or out. They're previewed in the March edition of True Magazine, All this and more at Wm. F. Stone, where smart shoppers stop to shop.

I went into the PRINCE RUPERT HOTEL DINING ROOM today just around quarter to twelve, and on into the kitchen. That was a mistake when I couldn't stay. Brownie Cronk was just taking a spice cake out of the oven and they were going to serve lunch. M-m-m-m-that kitchen smelled heavenly! Now there is a lovely place to spend a special occasion. The dining room is elegant, but quiet and restful and an ideal spot for a luncheon for two or dinner party of twenty. I looked over today's menu and fresh oysters and fish topped the list. You probably won't need a reservation if your party is small, but be on the safe side and give Brownie a buzz at 5651. You'll find the choicest food, skillfully cooked and graciously served. The hours of the Prince Rupert Hotel Dining Room are 7-10 a.m., 12-2 p.m. and 5-8 p.m. Hear ye . . . Hear ye . . . there good news, and important news, tonight from Vera Webb's TOTEM POLE GIFT SHOP. Spun aluminum "Prince Rupert, Gateway to Alaska," souvenir plates have arrived. They're marvellous! They have four Prince Rupert scenes in color, the fishing fleet, the museum, the harbor and sunset and the Skeena River, at, I think. the Kasiks Bridge. These plates are only $2.85 and they are so lightweight for mailing or packing in a suitease. You'll want one or more for your out-of-town family, Remember, a few months back, the Star Weekly had an article on Eskimo artists and their carvings? We'l, Vera has some of their work in grey coapstone and whalebone. It's worth a trip down to the Totem Pole Clift Shop to see this unusual work.

You're in demand with a Harmony gultur, gets people together . . . and what's more fun than getting together with the right people . . . at the right time . . . and the right music. Right music comes from a Harmony guitar and amplifier, whether you play for fun or professionally. Stop at Noble's, look and listen, you'll be glad you did. The prices start from $40 for these arched top beauties with the steel reinforced necks. There are electric models, too, and it won't hurt just to have a look. Does anyone know anything about Bongos? I don't, except that Bill has two sets in his window and the price is $12.05.

That's all for this week. Oh, a reminder from Alex and Laura for your weekend bridge party, MITCHELL'S have Gibson tally eards, two-way two table and two-way three table, thry cocktail and bridge servicties and Fashion Catch-all Coasters. By the way, have you ever wondered where to get the squat candles for carafes and warming dishes? Mitchell's have them, as well as all other types of candles. Your choice is un-Inited in table contrepleces for an Easter dinner party. Naturally, you just don't forget Laura's table arrangements either.
