BOYS' WOODWORKING

Watching the small boys' woodworking class on Tuesdays in the Civic Centre basement is quite an experience. And not an inactive experienc because, before long, one finds oneself handing a saw to this boy, finding a piece of plywood for that one, giving this one a pattern, the other a clamp and a new blade. It's a sea of action accompanied by the din of saws. Any attempt to talk is useless.

Most of the boys are sawing out the five pieces for the first project—a corner bric-a-brac shelf. Lloyd Kristmanson sandpapered his well before joining the line up by Paul Dumont, assistant to Mr. Miles, who nailed the pieces together for the boys. Next they go to the painting room where they varnish their work and set them up to dry.

Having done this, Lorne Murray, Billy McLeod, Eddie Ewasuik, Kenny Taylor and Gary Ogilvie rush for another piece of plywood and a pattern to start the next project. Some choose the cowboy tie rack as did Rusty Sykes and Arthur Twaites while some begin the Mexican book ends already being cut out by Murray Boas and Robert Gilmour.

When Mr. Miles wishes to get everyone's attention he has to flick the lights out which stops the sawing noise. All eyes are in his direction as he tells them to economize on plywood, or not to push so hard on their saws and break so many blades.

The final flick of the lights is a sign to put their names on their plywood pieces and bring them to the cupboard where they are left till the next sawing day.

ADULT LEATHERCRAFT

Leathercraft has taken a permanent hold in Prince Rupert, and the Civic Centre Hobby room, as a bright place to work and talk and drink tea, is being used by more and more members.

The busiest group is the Monday beginners' class which keeps Mr. Miles and Miss Patterson on the hop helping them all. As no leather is being sold at the Civic Centre this year, only leather projects being handled, the instructors have more time to devote to the class. Mr. Sieber was complaining that his fingers were all thumbs, but along with all the others who are making key cases or change purses at first, he is doing a very efficient job.

All seem happy about the new policy this year of each person supplying his or her tools. Some have bought an individual set while others like Evy Rivett and Audrey Wrathall share one. Betty Hood and the seven other nurses taking the course share a large tool kit and do some leatherwork during the week.

Several in the Tuesday evening group are beginning again on key cases and wallets, but Mrs. Redhead is making an attractive utility kit. Mrs. Bateman, Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Lippett are working at purses, while Mrs. Moore is making slippers for Xmas presents.

Some work on Wednesdays during Tiny Tots, but Thursday is becoming the most popular afternoon. As there are no children's classes after school that day, the room is free all afternoon for work and for tea. One does not have to do leatherwork to come on Thursdays. It's a good time to bring knitting or mending, to do shellwork or draw pictures, or just to drink tea.

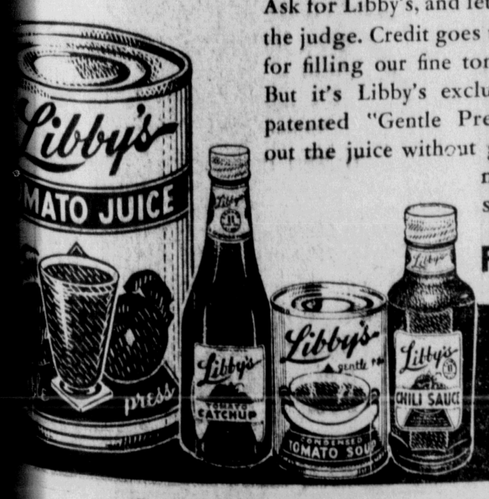
Enjoy the incomparable garden-fresh flavour of tomatoes fresh from the vine. Ask for Libby's, and let your own taste be the judge. Credit goes to the summer sun for filling our fine tomatoes with juice. But it's Libby's exclusive method—the patented "Gentle Press"—which takes out the juice without getting any bitterness from skin and seeds. So in Libby's Tomato Juice you really do enjoy finer flavour. And you get your full share of vitamins A and C of which Libby's is an excellent dietary source. Without these vitamins your body has less resistance to winter colds and infections. It's a wise health rule to serve Libby's often—to keep a few tins in the refrigerator and enjoy it whenever you're thirsty.



FIRST IN FAVOUR • FIRST IN FLAVOUR

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK
if you don't agree that Libby's "Gentle-Press" Tomato Products — Juice, Catchup, Chili Sauce and Soup — are the best you've ever tasted.
