PRINCE RUPERT WINS—

Glorious Hoop Season Climaxed With Second International Victory

Prince Rupert 71, Ketchikan 65

Taking the second straight game of what was billed as a two-out-of-three basketball series, Prince Rupert All-Stars last night drove through a five-minute overtime period to defeat Ketchikan by a 71-65 score after tying the fourth-quarter score through the keen marksmanship of Rupert Holkestad.

The game was the fourth victory that Prince Rupert All-Stars have won over visiting teams this spring and establishes the season as the most glorious in this city's basketball annals. In January, the boys overcame an invading Vancouver team.

Prince Rupert got off to such a slow start that it looked as though the Alaskans were destined for certain victory, as indeed they would have been had it not been for Holkestad's two accurate free shots after the final bell had sounded.

Those shots, tossed almost casually while the fans choked off their roar, tied the score at 56-56 and forced the overtime period in which Prince Rupert scored 15 points against Ketchikan's nine.

The climax was even more thrilling than that which brought the fans to their feet wildly in the first game at the Civic Centre Thursday night.

Prince Rupert's initial slowness cast a slight wave of despair over home town boosters during the first part of the game. At the end of the first quarter, Ketchikan led by a score of 19-9. At one time the locals were 19 points behind, but ended the first half 14 points in arrears. Half-time score was 31-17 for Ketchikan.

In the third quarter, Lindsay and Fitch got together and by scoring 16 points between them, brought the locals within 10 points of the visitors. Ketchikan ended the third quarter with 45 points and Prince Rupert with 35.

The final bell at the end of the fourth quarter saw Prince Rupert trailing by two points, but just as the bell sounded, Rup Holkestad was fouled and received two penalty shots. Both shots scored, tying the score at 56-all.

In the overtime period, there was no doubt of the outcome. The local lads just couldn't be stopped. Joe Davis scored eight of the 15 points marked up by Prince Rupert in the five overtime minutes.

For Ketchikan, John Mills was easily the most outstanding player. He chalked up 21 points and was the power behind the visitors and the bane of the home guard. Chris Christensen scored 18 points and H. Ludwigsen 13.

For Prince Rupert, Rup Holkestad and Jack Lindsay were outstanding with 20 and 24 points respectively. Joe Davis scored 13 points.

The two teams will meet again tonight in an exhibition game. Ketchikan players swear they are out to take one game from Rupert, so this should be some contest.

The scoring:

Prince Rupert—Lindsay 24, Beynon, Holkestad 20, Forman 2, Dominato 1 Morgan 2, Hartwig Fitch 7, Flaten 2, Davis 13

Ketchikan—Christensen 18, R. Farstad 4, H. Ludwigsen 13, Mills 21, Phillips 4, Erickson, Bolduc 5 Graham.

BASKETBALL CHATTER

(By BILL LONG)

Any three men in town should have been able to hold big Johnny Mills in check last night and thereby save the local All Stars the embarrassment of being some 19 points down at one time, but then who was going to look after the other four men on his team? The man was just plain terrific for one quarter, that being the first and there was much blood in Sev Dominato's eyes as he tried vainly to stop the smart Alaskan. Mind you, Mills wasn't the only lad working for Harry Ludwigsen but he was the most spectacular and it is spectacles the fans pay for. Cliff Phillips, probably the sweetest guard ever to play here, was his usual capable self when he left the floor and was given a great hand by the large crowd.

Getting down to our boys, well, it's hard to pick stars. Rupert Holkestad's effort in tying the score with two free throws, after the whistle had gone, was definitely the most exciting of the evening. He sauntered up to the foul strip with the coolness of a veteran and his smile after sinking the first shot brought the house down. Then we have Jack Lindsay and Don Fitch and their great scoring splurge after the half that narrowed the visitor's margin to the point where steady plugging meant victory. We cannot either, forget young Joe Davis and his 13 points when they were so badly needed.

One incident in the first game that many will hardly understand was Sev Dominato stepping in to stop the tussle between Lindsay and Phillips Usually the promoter in such shows, big Sev stepped up with "There'll be no fighting here boys" and John Mills took him up wrong to step in like a veteran battler ready to stop Dominato.

Don Fitch in scoring three quick baskets was the most surprised man on the floor. He looked around as if he couldn't believe it. Holkestad was certainly put on a tough spot when he had to shoot his two free throws after the whistle had gone. He was as cool as a cucumber when he shot. The ball just swished through to tie the game. It was a case of steady nerves and a dead shot.
