PRICE TEN CENTS

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port — And Key to the Great Northwest

Business, Classified 3203. Advertising 3201

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, JANUARY 8, 1962

News Desk 3204, Sports 3205, Social 3206

Jaimon in countless millions claimed in new secret process

Mr. Murray said that emphasis has been placed on the employment of local men and ma-citines for the work. About 20

ral camp at Skeenaville.

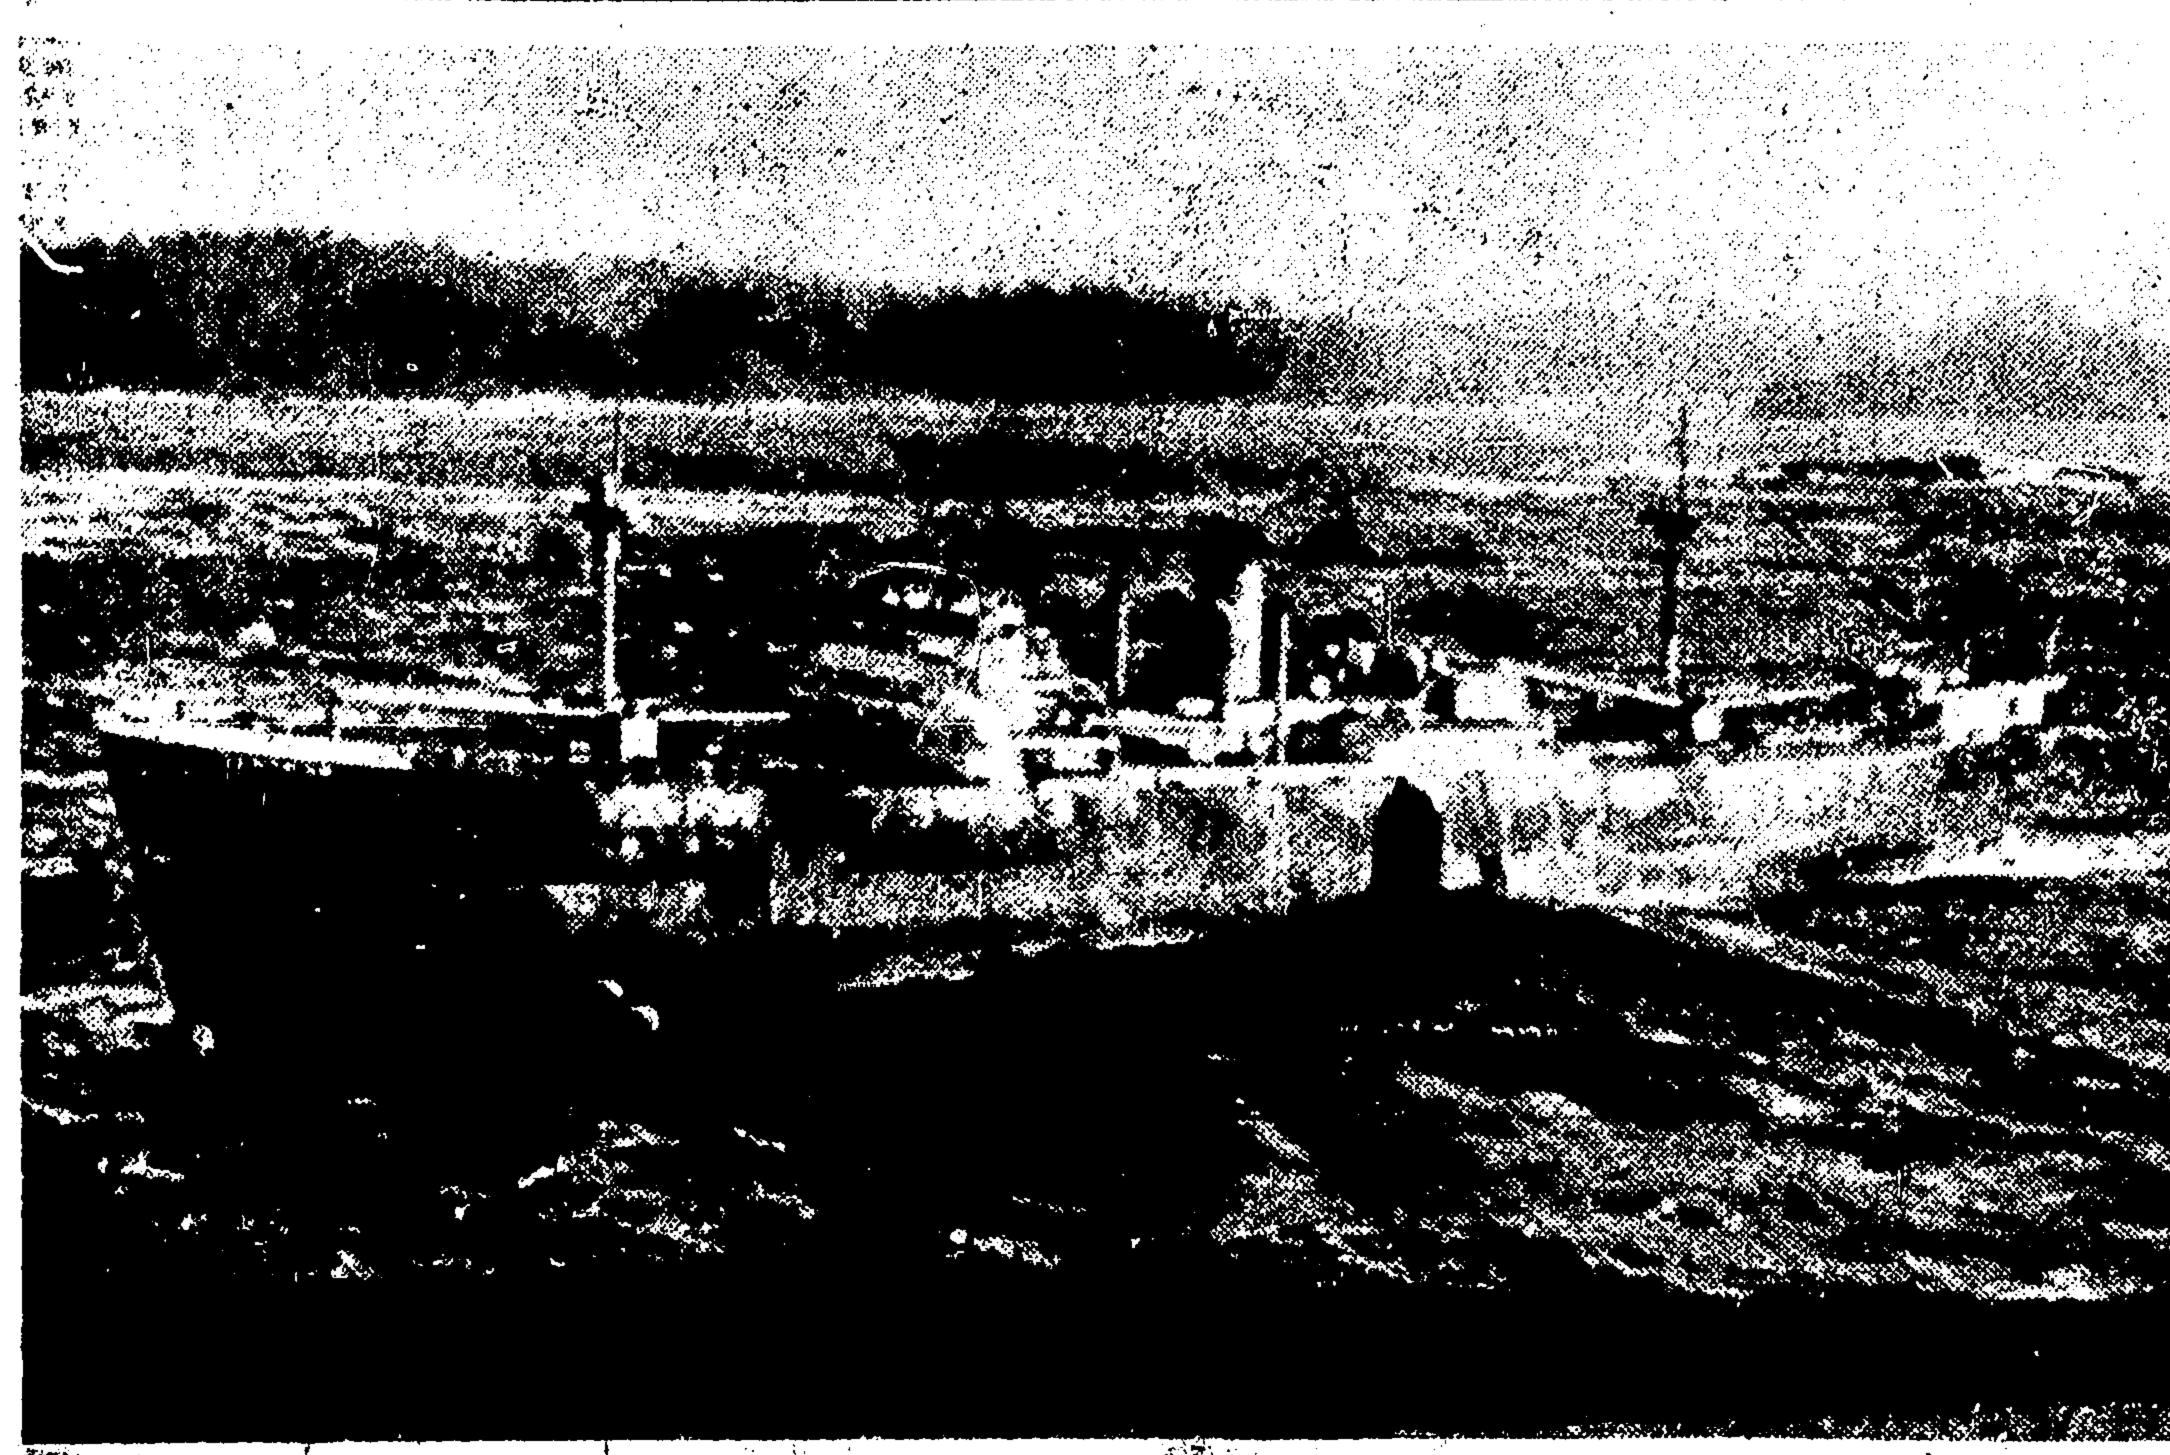

the vicinity of the job.

tor burglary

entering and theft.

charges which were laid as a

Two men held

DAMAGED SHIP AT ANCHOR — Greek freighter Glafkos rides at anchor in heavy seas off , the west coast of Vancouver Island last Thursday after being pulled free from a rocky pinnacle. The Canadian lifeboat Bamfield stands by left and a ship's boat cangles from the vessel's midsection. Crew members were removed from the Glaskos by helicopter. — CP Wirephoto

Highway work to commence now appropriation approved by department

A sum amounting to more than $100,000 has been appropriated by the provincial highways department for rip-rapping along the Skeena River, W. H. Mur-|tificial breeding." ray, MLA for Prince Rupert announcedtoday.

He was asked at a press conference whether Indonesia plans

an immediate attack on the

"I think so," replied the am-

'Military action," he said, 'will) be the next move if we can't start negotiations now on the claims as part of its territory.

Bomb attack misses Indonesian president

MAKASSAR, Celebes (CP)—President Sukarno of Indonesia escaped unharmed following a bomb ex- Murray said work will commence lalong the coast plosion Sunday night while winding up a four-day snowfalls at the eastern end. barnstorming tour of the Celebes to whip up support for his planned seizure of West New Guinea.

The bomb killed three persons crowd watching the president soon take military action in West in the Tyce-Skeena stretch of ed to tidal movements. arrive to make a speech. It ex- New Guinea, if necessary to the roadway. ploded a few hundred yards force the Dutch out. behind his motorcade. Visibly shaken, he addressed a student! rally shortly afterwards.

There were no indications of Dutch colony ,which Indonesia any arrests but military precautions were strengthened in Makaskar, the probable jumping off bassador. point for any invasion of Dutch West New Guinea.

In Ottawa today the Indones-1. lali Ambassagor, L. N. Palar in- transfer of Irian Barat to Indo-

Woman given

was sentenced to five days Friday when she appeared before) Mugistrate E. T. Applewhalte In Cecil was found guilty of a reduced charge of theft. She had l pleaded not guilty to a charge of robbery with violence involval. ing an incident December and robbed of a sot of koys. The man and woman, represent- be available, ed-by defence counsel W. N. Poole, had been charged in con-Heatlon with the same incident. "Mugistrate Applewhalle said; no felt Ware and Bonson regard- ) ed themselves as man and wife. Ware testried that Pascale had said he foll it was justified.

> ノハイト DRUGS LTD. DIAL

| nesian sovereignty." Replying to another question Avenue West were remanded Mr. Palar said Indonesia pos- until Wednesday today when sibly would call on Russia for they appeared in police court help in the event the attack on before Magistrate E. T. Apple-West New Chilinea bogged down. Whalle on charges of breaking,

Queenic Ceell of Prince Rupert police court.

Owing to a broakdown in land-16 line communications between _ when Gulseppe Pascale of 1063 here and Prince George no road Driver disobeys Ninth Avenue East was beaton report will be carried today. It and robbed of a set of keys. Is hoped to have this service back police, gets fine

HIGHWAY

n Enany

Newspaperman misses life's goal

made some advance on Benson Burd fell short of his goal by a 10 and was given five days to visit to Canada. and he (Warer got mad and a year and a day. He had wanted have the lights fixed. When he paper business. His douth in hospital here brought to court. Saturday, a day before his 92nd birthday, onded a 70-year career b I in journalism that spanned the Ho told a friend not long ago nard Rao of 1743 Sixth Avenue been done yet. he hoped to survive until Janu- kast was stolen sometime during. However, Brian Lenchan, parary 7, 1963, when he could say the weekend from Tyee. The had been in the business for The vessel is described as be- state fisheries said in answer to 16 near the Kasiks River bridge, muffler. oight decades. His contempor- ing a 121/2-foot speed boat with The Canadian Fisherman: arios had long singo left the a red bottom and white top. Its | sorial number is 10165071.

Plan could scuttle Canadian fleets

A secret process of breeding salmon in captivity and their mass production in countless millions could mean the end of the salmon fishing fleets of British | Columbia if the plan was introduced in this country, | a writer in a Canadian fishing magazine claimed to-

Results of a secret Norwegian process which makes the sal- litinerary of the salmon is not hn J. Murdoch, British freein the January issue of The Canadian Fisherman.

the Sunday Express.

necessary to bring about maturity or for subsequent breeding.

In fact, Mr. Murdoch asserts, the experiments, carried out under artificial conditions, have proved that they can breed much more prolifically by staying at home.

"The hitherto elusive gap between the salmon's departure down following a merger with from fresh water and their return to it has been successfully Mr. Murdoch claims that the bridged with highly significant Norwegian experiments, which results for the consumer and have lasted more than six years, commercial fishing interests."

the eggs cannot be fertilized in process. sea water and if the fry or fing- After six years of experierlings are transferred to sea water they just die. This conformation to the laws of nature, Mr. Murdoch writes, "has always been an insuperable block to ar-

Mr. Murdoch says that a 42-1

the gap it had always been well coast, has however, solved the and truly established that sal- problem by circumvention and manager, said today. mon breed only in fresh water; evolution coupled with a secret > station, hig succulent salmon, grown in captivity, were seen at a public trade exhibition in Oslo early in December.

Mr. Vik can now produce from year-old Norwegian architect salt water pools teeming millions Karstein Oddrn Vik, from Syk-, of salmon ready for the table, kylven, a small town just south Mr. Murdoch claims.

"While in Canada," the article in The Canadian Fisherman says, "Mr. Vik has an invitation to meet fish biologists in the State of Washington. In the following year he proposes to tsart similar fish

Man made sea pools used

In the Vik process there is an in Iceland. Next on his list men will be employed on the job and will be housed in a centadherence to nature because the Ireland and, according to Mr. salmon are hatched in fresh, Murdoch, Mr. Vik is coming to The appropriation is a joint | running water and then very, Canada towards the end of April one between Terrace and Prince very gradually the fry are trans- to see Fisheries Minister J. An-Rupert and the crews will work ferred to sea water in big, man-|gus MacLean, about starting Highway 16 until March 31. Mr. at this end first owing to heavy along the coast.

Before reaching their final, A regional engineer is expec- abode the salmon are much bigted this week to carry out in- ger than fingerlings and spections of the worst areas. waters have been chemically The department of highways treated. As part of the process, and injured 25 others in the timated that his country will says there are several bad spots the pools are gradually subject-The Canadian Fisherman ar- stations in Australia and New

Work is expected to start im- ticle says that fishery experts Zealand." mediately and rock will be ob- who have examined Mr. Vik's Mr. Murdoch says that "withtained from local quarries in achievements have been aston- in the next four or five years, salmon of up to 40 or 50 pounds Now Mr. Vik plans building in weight will be turned out by hundreds of millions like broiler 'fish farms on a global scale. Mr. Murdoch says that Mr. Vik chickens and just as cheap. has already completed plans for will be a fishery revolution on starting a new salmon industry a global scale."

Development in Ireland

Mr. Vik has just returned tean be produced is astronomical Second Avenue West and Frederick Bagshaw of 1856 Eighth to start his operations in ordinary circumstances. March. He has had long con- e His scheme has exploded the lice will be arranged by Mrs. reading. . Trish government fishery experts and with Brian Lenchan, The two pleaded guilty to the the parliamentary head of the result of an incident January 5 when the home of Bort Hulm pointed out that: of New Floats was broken into Breeding salmon in captivity in one batch of 250,000 fry at 10 - horsepower motor has limitless possibilities be- the Sykkylven station mortality Handwriting analysis classes taken. The motor has been refrom a week's tour of Ireland | His process can guarantee as bridge. This is a 10-week course. Further courses are being con- The log barge, one of the only where he inspected places an much as 70 per cent survival Also on Tuesday Mrs. Jean Stev-sidered Mr. Schultz went on, two self-loading types in existthe west coast where he plans | compared to 5 per cent under enson will conduct driver train- which may include photography, ence, is owned by B.C. Forest sultations with top-ranking myth that salmon can breed only Stevenson on an individual basis. once in from two to about four | The "Living Room Learning" Booth Junior High School or by or five years. Mr. Vik has proved! group, conducted by Dr. R. W. K. phone at 5088. that salmon can breed every Elliott, which meets every Wed-In his Irish talks, Mr. Vik years at least, maybe more. | topic: "Introduction to the Hu-

cause the number of fish that was a mere 20,000.

of The Canadian Fisherman proposition. Charges of robbery with vio- tomorrow when the latest driv- Richard Elgar Bodger of 1130 made every effort to check the lence against Ronald Ware and ing conditions between here and Tenth Avenue East was fined authenticity of Mr. Murdoch's Patricia Benson were dismissed. Prince Goorge and Killmat will $10 and $2 costs or three days in article. The Canadian Fisherman | jail by Magistrate E. T. Apple-| does not vouch for the accuracy | whatte in police court Saturday of the facts claimed and says morning when he pleaded guilty the opinions are those of Mr. the the charge of driving a vo-Murdoch and the individuals;

Intele without the required num-quoted. | ber of lights on it. Bodger was| The Department of Fisheries| checked for driving with one in Ottawa have not heard VANCOUVER (6) --- Frank J. hondlight at 0:15 p.m. December Mr. Vik or of any impending

David Olafsson, director fight resulted. The magistrate to claim 80 years in the news- failed to have them fixed with- Fisheries for Iceland has In the regulable time, he was personal knowledge of Mr. Vik |but has heard that he was ongaged by a private firm to furhigh drawings and plans for astablishing salmon and trout sta-A bont owned by Jumes Bor- tions in Icoland but nothing hus

| liamontary head of Ireland's marks which lead off Highway a

Aware of the implications of developed by the Vik brothers of the article on Mr. Vik, the editor | Norway, is a sound econom | | "We are very pleased that

Trefand is being given a chance to get in on the ground floor of this new "broiler salmon" industry, for I believe it will be in use in many parts of the world within the next few years . . . Mr. Vik and his brother have succeeded where others have failed. They alone ling an incident yesterday morn-l in the world have the "know". how" and they are prepared to stop sign at Sixth Avenue and, let other countries in on this McBride Street. gradually . . . Mr. Vik has told i me that after establishing the industry on the west coust of Frehand, he is going to Canada for talks with the fishery authorities there." *

Police are investigating the "I am satisfied, and so are my possibility that a car went in the on Fifth Avenue East and found ladvisors, that this now process litvor.

LITTLE THEATRE REHEARSES --- Closely studying the football pool results members of the cast have been going through their paces on the Civic Centre auditorium stage. The halfbuilt set should prove an attractive addition to the play when it is produced January 18, 19, 20. From left to right: Roxanne Erwin, James Scollan, Hugh de Burgh, Rosemary Gilbert, Janelle Hayden and Robert Whiteley. The date of the play has been put forward one week to avoid clashes with other functions, Producer Owen E. win has announced.

- Staff photo by John Pain

Log barge found almost undamaged in Gravina Island inlet, towed south

The lost 2,000-ton log barge, Forest Prince, which broke adrift Thursday in heavy gales off the coast in Dixon Entrance near Celestial Reef, was sighted about 1:30 p.m. Friday afternoon aground in a cove on Gravina Island, Alaska, at the southern end of Clarence Straits, E. T. S. Moore, Straits Towing Ltd. city menting at his Sykkylven fish Lang, which was also searching terday about 4:30 p.m. for the barge, pulled her off and towed the massive self - loader south to Prince Rupert. She was found to have only minor hull

M. A. Schultz has announced.

The new term is due to start!

ginners, painting in oils.

will conduct a class in contract practice.

Adult classes start

new winter courses

The vessel. Mr. Moore said, had pletely, Mr. Moore said this very high seas. The Forest Prince gone into an almost land-locked "It was just as well," he went Commodore's 'rudder carried cove with a sandy bottom. Helon, "In those seas it could have away and the vessel drifted to said it was the only such spot sunk the ship if it had been within four miles of the rocky for a matter of 10 miles around, banging around loose. It would coastline of Dundas Island, about

Diver Gunter Diehl inspected the have been even worse when the 30 miles north of here. hull on its arrival in Prince Ru-|Commodore was riding the storm| The Department of Transport pert yesterday. The Forest Prince out stern first." is now being towed south by the The Commodore, under Cap-Western Airlines. The tug N. R. Johnstone Straits and left yes- tain M. J. L. Macdonald, had been towing the Forest Prince from A second tug, the Pacific Masset to Prince Rupert Thurs-Chief, is at present towing the day when the towrope broke in rudderless tug Commodore to gale-force weather. Winds were Vancouver for repairs. The rud-estimated to have been in the der had been carried away com- region of 100 miles per hour with holds its own

son and Vancouver.

Toops district 40 per cent.

Mrs. J. H. Hanna.

Search abandoned

TERRACE (P) - RCMP have.

given up the search for Edwin

Dobble, 42, missing since Christ-

Imas Eve when he falled to arrive at the home of his sister.

without a fire fatality.

light tender, Alexander McKenzie: rushed to the aid of the tug from Port Simpson and stood by to take off crew if it should have proved necessary. The N R. Lang, towing a barge north, dropped her tow and also rushed north.

The U.S. Coast Guard cutter The winter term of night school classes will be Balsam also raced south from offering five 10-week courses for the public, director released by Capt. Macdonald as the other vessels arrived on the Travelling south on the easttomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. at able interest to adult students, ern side of Dundas Island a third Booth Memorial Junior High Mr. Schultz said "the student tug, the Comet, handed her tow School when registration will won't graduate as an expert but to a vessel from Armour Salvit will give him an insight into age Ltd. of Prince Rupert and The following subjects will be the possibilities of this art." Theaded to the rescue of the Comavailable: English for New Ca- Golters, or would-be golfers, modore picking up the tow seven nadians; typewriting, shorthand will find the golfing course to be miles off Triple Island, one of and bookkeeping (both advanced conducted by W. W. Baldry the southern islands making up courses); dressmaking, conversa-|Thursday nights of considerable the Dundas group, about 5 a.m.

tional Spanish, Russian for be-interest. The course will include Friday. | such basics as the grip, the swing | The Commodore was berthed On Tuesday Mrs. J. A. McRae and will include actual driving at Shell oil dock about 11:30 a.m. the same day.

ing courses. Actual driving practice creative writing, and blueprint Products Ltd., of Vancouver.

He may be contacted at the Assault earns man seven days Timber scale

A city man, Elmer McBride, 33, was sentenced to seven days VICTORIA (). The British in jail by Magistrate E. T. Ap-Columbia forest service said to- plewhaite in police court Satlast year and proved of consider- day the timber scale-a recog- urday morning when he pleaded Inized barometer of business ac- guilty to the charge of assault tivity is greater than that of causing bodily harm.

The charge followed an in-1980 in all districts except Neleldent at 3:05 Saturday morn-The figures were for a 10-'ing when RCMP were called to Going through a stop sign cost month period ending October, investigate the cause of screams in a room above 99 Taxi stand.

triet 47 per cent. Prince George the head and mouth. district 40 per cent, and Kam-1

WEATHER

Owing to a landline breakdown between Prince Rupert and Vancouver, no weather forecast has been received at press lime.

The Daily News Roadings Temperature at noon .... 44 Barometer, rising ...... 30.39

Prince Rupert has TIDES

Tuesday, January 9, 1962 (Pacific Standard Time) 6.1 feet

1.6 feet

Traffic break

Thomas Henry Perkins of 1401 1961. Eighth Avenue East $10 today | Scales in the Prince Rupert | They found that the accused when he appeared in police court | constal district increased 5.4 per | had severely beaten. Dorothy before Magistrate E. T. Apple-cent, Prince Rupert Interior dis-Wilson, who was bleeding from

This course was first offered

Perkins pleaded guilty to the | charge which was laid follow-. Ing when he falled to stop at a r

Muffler costs $15

carns man finc

David W. Mcken of Port Ed-| ward was fined $15 today when | he pleaded guilty in police court ROMP are investigating tire whatte on a charge of operating), He was checked December 10 | accident and 283 days).

to have a noisy muffler.