Timely Topics from Terrace

Mrs. C. R. De Kergommeaux, Terrace Reporter

Being met at Kwinitsa by a Prince Rupert police car, Constable Brue left on Monday afternoon by car for Vancouver escorting a prisoner from Terrace to that point.

Gerald Irving of Vanderhoof is spending a few days on holiday at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Irving.

By long distance call from Vanderhoof to the E. T. Kenney real estate office, the lot directly east of the telephone office on Lakelse Avenue was sold to the firm of Sargent, Robin and Sait Ltd., general merchants of McBride and Vanderhoof.

Mrs. Bert West and Mrs. James Maxted left on Tuesday's train to attend the Diocesan annual Women's Auxiliary meeting at Prince Rupert.

For the second successive year the Orangemen have taken the trophy for winning the tug-o-war at the Victoria Day sports, their opponents being the Kinsmen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Osborne accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pache and two children, Sandra and Teddy, left on Monday morning by car for Vancouver and the States where they will spend a couple of weeks on holiday.

Victor King of Prince Rupert is spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William King.

Mrs. D. G. Little entertained at the tea hour Friday in honor of her twin sisters-in-law, Mrs. Foy and Mrs. Mangnall who are visiting their father, George Little. Mr. Foy is expected to join his wife and small daughter in Terrace next week and will holiday here awhile before returning with them to their home in North Carolina.

Mrs. Greenwood returned on Thursday morning's train from Prince Rupert where she attended the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Hamilton, to Mr. Manuel Heise. The ceremony was performed at the United Church manse with the Rev. R. A. Wilson officiating. The bride was attended by Mrs. E. Rhodes and the groom's best man was C. Veirs. The newlyweds will make their home in Prince Rupert. The bride was an elementary school teacher in Terrace last year.

W. H. Spencer returned last week from Vancouver where he was called on business.

Mrs. Rita Kerr won the hand-carved lamp which was raffled at the Kinsmen's Victoria Day dance at the Civic Centre last Tuesday.

T. A. McMartin of Smithers was a business visitor in Terrace this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sawle of New Hazelton spent a few days holidaying in Terrace last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Langridge and family of Prince Rupert spent the Victoria Day holiday in Terrace driving in for the occasion.

The mothers' rest room at the Civic Centre which was operated by the members of the Women's Institute on the Victoria Day holiday was very well patronized during the day, some of the mothers leaving their sleeping babies in care of an attendant while they took in the sports. It was operated free of charge and was certainly a boon to some of the mothers with small babies.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lovin have moved from their home on Lazelle Avenue to one on the Eby Road which they have purchased from Mr. Taft.

James Maxted is back at home after spending a few days in hospital.

The year old infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Kerr suffered a femur fracture on Thursday evening at her home when she tumbled down a flight of stairs leading to the basement. Because of the lack of an X-ray technician at the hospital here, the baby had to be taken to Prince Rupert General Hospital early Friday morning where she will have the necessary treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Sundal have returned home from a holiday in the south.

As the Civic Centre is so urgently in need of seating accomodation for the auditorium, a fund has been started with a donation from the local volunteer fire brigade for the purchase of 300 chairs. The net proceeds of the July 1 sports day will be devoted to that fund after current expenses have been met. The Civic Centre Association is planning a big day for July 1 and tickets will soon be on sale. A refrigerator, vacuum cleaner and $15 worth of merchandise from a local store will be the first, second and third gate prizes.

Mrs. John Warne, a resident of Terrace over a decade ago, spent a few days in Terrace visiting friends while enroute from Vancouver to Edmonton where she will visit her son Howard who was once a telegraph operator here.
