Where two lengths of Stonebord come together, there's a true uniform channel. With a broadknife apply the famous Stonebord joint filler, then a strip of re-enforcing tape as furnished, then smooth off with more filler. The result—a strong, re-enforced invisible joint.

Stonebord comes end-bundled — two sheets taped face-to-face to keep them clean and perfect. Stonebord is smooth, hard and durable, takes any decoration, is vermin proof and fireproof because its core is mineral gypsum.

BILLIARD PLAY OVER WEEK-END

John Bulger Reaches Semi-Finals in Canadian Legion Tournament

Good progress was made over the week-end in the Canadian Legion's second handicap English billiard tournament of the season. Five matches were played off. In three of these matches the results were in doubt until the last few minutes of the game

In the first round A. M. Hurst (-10) scored a hard-fought win over Captain J. R. Elfert (x20) by a margin of 13 points. Hurst failed to catch up with his opponent until he had reached 121 when he took the lead and held it until the end of the game, the final score being 150 to 137.

George Dawes (x25), playing Rod McLeod (x20), trailed his opponent until the last 9 points of the match when he tied the score at 141, finally winning an exciting contest by four points more than his handicap with a score of 150-141.

In the second round Mickey Fudger (plus 25) got back into form against W. Goddard (x10) and won easily with a score of 150 to 85.

Bert Morgan (x20), playing W. Longman Gordon, (x10) had a keenly contested game in which they continually overtook one another, Morgan finally winning by 20 points with a score of 150 to 130.

In the third round John Bulger won his third successive game, thereby securing his place in the semi-final of this tournament. Bulger ,who conceded his opponent, Mickey Fudger, 20 points, played his consistently steady game, winning by 40 points with a score of 150 to 110.

Only one game, Alex Harvey vs. R. H. Simonson, remains to be played in the first round and this is scheduled for today. It is expected that the finals of this second tournament will be played off next week.

BUSY WEEK-END AT MOUNT HAYS

Work and Pleasure for Members of Prince Rupert Ski Club

There was another week-end of activtiy and enjoyment by members of the Prince Rupert Ski Club on Mount Hays.

Ascending the mountain on Saturday afternoon, bingo playing featured a social session that evening with Foster Husoy, Eddie Dawes, Jessie Collins, Odd Eidsvik, Rusty Thain and Jeanne Husoy, the prize winners. Coffee and refreshments were served.

Sunday morning everybody went to work with a will. More bunks were erected in the cabins, stoves installed and curtains hung. Work was continued on the cabin at the ski run and smart drapes were hung in the main lodge. There was also work on the woodpile with felling of trees and carrying of the blocks to the cabins.

Return home was made Sunday night.

SKI CLUB ENJOYS MOUNTAIN PARTY

Members of the Prince Rupert Ski Club are looking forward to another party at their Mount Hays ski camp similar to one which punctuated the last week-end work expedition when a large group enjoyed dancing, Chinese checkers, darts and cards in their lofty and comfortable cabin.

The party was organized by Mrs. Duncan McRae, chairman of the club's entertainment committee. Recent acquisition of a

Coasting On City Streets

The hard packed snow with a glaze over it Saturday afternoon afforded fine coasting for any who felt like using their sleds and there were many. There was sufficient slope on Second Street at Second Avenue to glide away down to the overhead approach and from there to the docks. And that was a fair ride, even if it was necessary to try and keep on friendly terms with the motorists. Other city hills also had their tobogganists.
