ST. PETER'S W.A. BAZAAR

East End Parish Hall Venue For Fancy Work Shoppers Thursday

St. Peter's Church Hall was a very busy place Thursday afternoon, when the Women's Auxiliary held their annual pre-Christmas bazaar. As usual, many ladies wended their way down to carry on the search for special Christmas gifts and to enjoy a cup of tea and a chat with friends or to pick up some delicious home cooking of which there was good choice to take home for the evening meal. The adults, as well as the children, patronized the candy stall, well laden with candy of almost every variety.

Canon W. F. Rushbrook, with a few complimentary and encouraging remarks to the members and patrons, declared the bazaar open. Mrs. J. Prince, president of the Senior Women's Auxiliary, received, assisted by Mrs. E. Hodson, honorary president.

Those in charge of the various stalls were:

Home Cooking—Mrs. W. B. Skinner, Mrs. M. Viereck and Mrs. A. Griffiths.

Sewing—Mrs. G. A. Hebb, Mrs. A. J. Croxford, and Mrs. William Wallace.

Candy—Mrs. Wm. Davidson and Mrs. H. V. Tattersall.

Cashier, Mrs. George Viereck.

Novelties — Mrs. D. Gomez.

Church Calendars — Mrs. G. Kelsey.

The tea room, previously decorated by the Y.P.A. group for their week-end play, took on a mysterious atmosphere but proved quite cosy. The stage drapes made way for the attractively decorated tea tables, under the direction of the Auxiliary.

Those in charge were:

Kitchen—Mrs. Wilfrid McLean, Mrs. Albert Dalzell, Mrs Jack Ritchie, Mrs. William McLean and Mrs. E. T. S. Moore

Servitteurs—Mrs. Wilfrid Taylor, Mrs. A. Wyatt and Mrs. Robert Kelsey.

The members felt well rewarded for their work on seeing the fine turn-out, despite weather conditions.

Mrs. Don Yelf is a passenger aboard the Coquitlam today returning to Tlell after a trip to Vancouver where she attended the recent marriage of her son, Jack Yelf.
