Costumes, party tood add fun to Valentine

For grown-ups and children alike, nothing is auite as cheering as a masquerade

This is the season when Mardi Gras masquerades are held in The fact that your budget many European countries. This year, why not delight your family and friends with a Valentine you. Colorful costumes can be

blind students

Cane Week, February 4 to 10, and kings of hearts, Valentine the Canadian National Institute cards, or even playing cards for the Blind is publicizing the sprinkled with hearts. work done by sighted people in Canadian cities who have easier, than that of fashioning learned to write Braille in order costumes. As the latter will be to provide blind students in worn but occasionally, sewing sighted schools and universities experts advise us to put our crebooks listed on their courses.

deal to these people, for it is now finishing. possible for blind students to obtain an education equal to that of the sighted and even have a career in law and social work, and other occupations.

From a beginning of one small class in 1958, the volunteer trantranscribed.

Volunteers spend many hours ribbon. signed writer that looks like a onets. dot in the six-dot cell.

one city alone more than 4,000 or applique hearts to the cloth.

falls short. report on the visual. Partiallysighted persons find TV football, tiny hearts. golf or hockey much more "seetheir narrow field of vision. In a plain layer cake, cut into the variety of recreation from bowl- ing before spreading. or handouts.

easily stitched from fabric remnants; imagination can give sandwiches and cakes a "hearty" look; and party decorations and even prizes can be stitched from

Costumes in a Valentine mood VANCOUVER — During White include cupids, saints, queens

No sewing is more fun, nor with Braille editions of the text ative effort into the concept and overall effect. Perfect fit Blind Canadians owe a great isn't essential, nor is careful

To facilitate the creation of costume, plan it for wear over leotards. Then a front and back section can be made and joined over the shoulders. For instance, a playing card costume can be scribers have grown to more than produced from white broadcloth 100 Braillists. They have tran-scribed books, pamphlets, ex-fitted over poster board lining. For a Valentine party, taffeta tracts. The subjects covered a hearts can be appliqued to the variety of topics — law, chemis- broadcloth in the heart formatry, mathematics, foreign lan- tion desired and red bias tape guages, diet sheets and a mail used for definition. A ruffle can order catalogue — all have been be produced from a piece of organdy trimmed with red satin

a week learning the Braille sys- | For the headpiece, look to the tem which is based on the mul- attic trunk for bunny ears, titiple combination of six dots. aras, or long ropes of beads They write with a specially de- which can be twisted into cor-typewriter. Instead of a large To give your home a Valenkey board with each letter fixed tine atmosphere, combine some on a corresponding key, the red garlands or branches (left Braille writer has only six keys, over from Christmas) with simieach corresponding to a Braide lar decorations in white. For the table, use your zigzag stitch to Blind persons enjoy the movies add a bright red cotton fringe and the theatre. Last year in to an inexpensive white cloth-, passes were distributed for the Games in a Valentine mood movies. Other cities kept pace, include mimicing romantic songs Admitting two, the pass recog- or plays such as "Let Me Call nized the importance of an es- You Sweetheart" and "Cyrano cort to sill in where dialogue de Bergerac." Give guests a list of famous lovers—with the let-Numerous blind persons have ters scrambled—and ask them to television sets in their homes unscramble. Prizes can be homeand enjoy the entertainment. sewn heart-shaped pin cushions, Sighted members of the family red satin hanger covers, white handkerchiefs appliqued with held last night.

Party fare can take the form the grandstand the game is far shape of a heart and frosted too distant for their poor sight. with white icing. Add a few, own social clubs heading the used for the Venetian Night derheide and Victor Radwansky. executive and manning the com- Masquerade Ball which is being public relations conveners. mittees. They don't want pity held in the Civic Centre on February 24.

VALENTINE MASQUERADE will brighten the long stretch between Christmas and Easter. Costumes in a Valentine vein include cupids, saints, kings and queens of hearts, Valentine cards — and playing cards in the "heart" suit. A sewing machine, a few staples and some imagination can produce costumes, decorations, prizes and cakes in a "hearty" mood.

First Baptist Church

Mrs. J. S. Greer was re-elected church clerk and wood and summer stock com- When her family moved to Los A. Johnstone was re-elected treasurer at the an panies. Inual business meeting of the First Baptist Church their own homes and take in a chopped cherries into the frost- Miss Mary White and Miss Hea- Cub Pack group committee. ther Moore, entertainment and ing to bingo. They conduct their These costumes could also be social committee; and Mrs. Van-

The meeting also ratified the elections of Mr. Vanderheide as Mrs. Linzey as president of the tremely low, and no medical ex-Women's Missionary Society, and aminations are necessary. Ap-Mr. Verwold as president of the plication forms and information senior Young People's Associa- may be obtained at the Legion Annual reports were given by Hilmer Domreis, secretary-treas- February 9, 8 o'clock, followed urer of the Sunday School; Mrs. by cabaret dance at 10 o'clock. Greer for the Cradle Roll; Mrs. Everyone welcome.

office were Henry Vanderheide, WMS secretary and treasurer; tainment career was abandoned. ' A. E. Jones, E. W. Verwold and Jacqueline Truscott and Monica able than the real time. The of heart-shaped sandwiches and R. B. Jones, E. W. Verwold and Jacqeuine Truscott and Monica camera brings the play right into a plain lower cake out into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People's into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, Junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, Junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, Junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, Junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, Junior Young People into the R. B. Green, deacons, Mrs. G. Kowal, deacons, Mrs. M. H. Waters and Mrs. secretary - treasurer; and Mr. 46 roles in dramatic roles. He has Blind people today are busy cake to make it pink and stir Lloyd Bowman, organists; Mrs. Verwold, chairman of the Sixth Sung both oratoria and operatic they travel, work, own channel charges into the frost. Linzey, prayer meeting pianist; Prince Rupert Scout Troop and tions as Marin Symphone San d

Announcements All Legion and Legion Λuxiliary members under 70 years

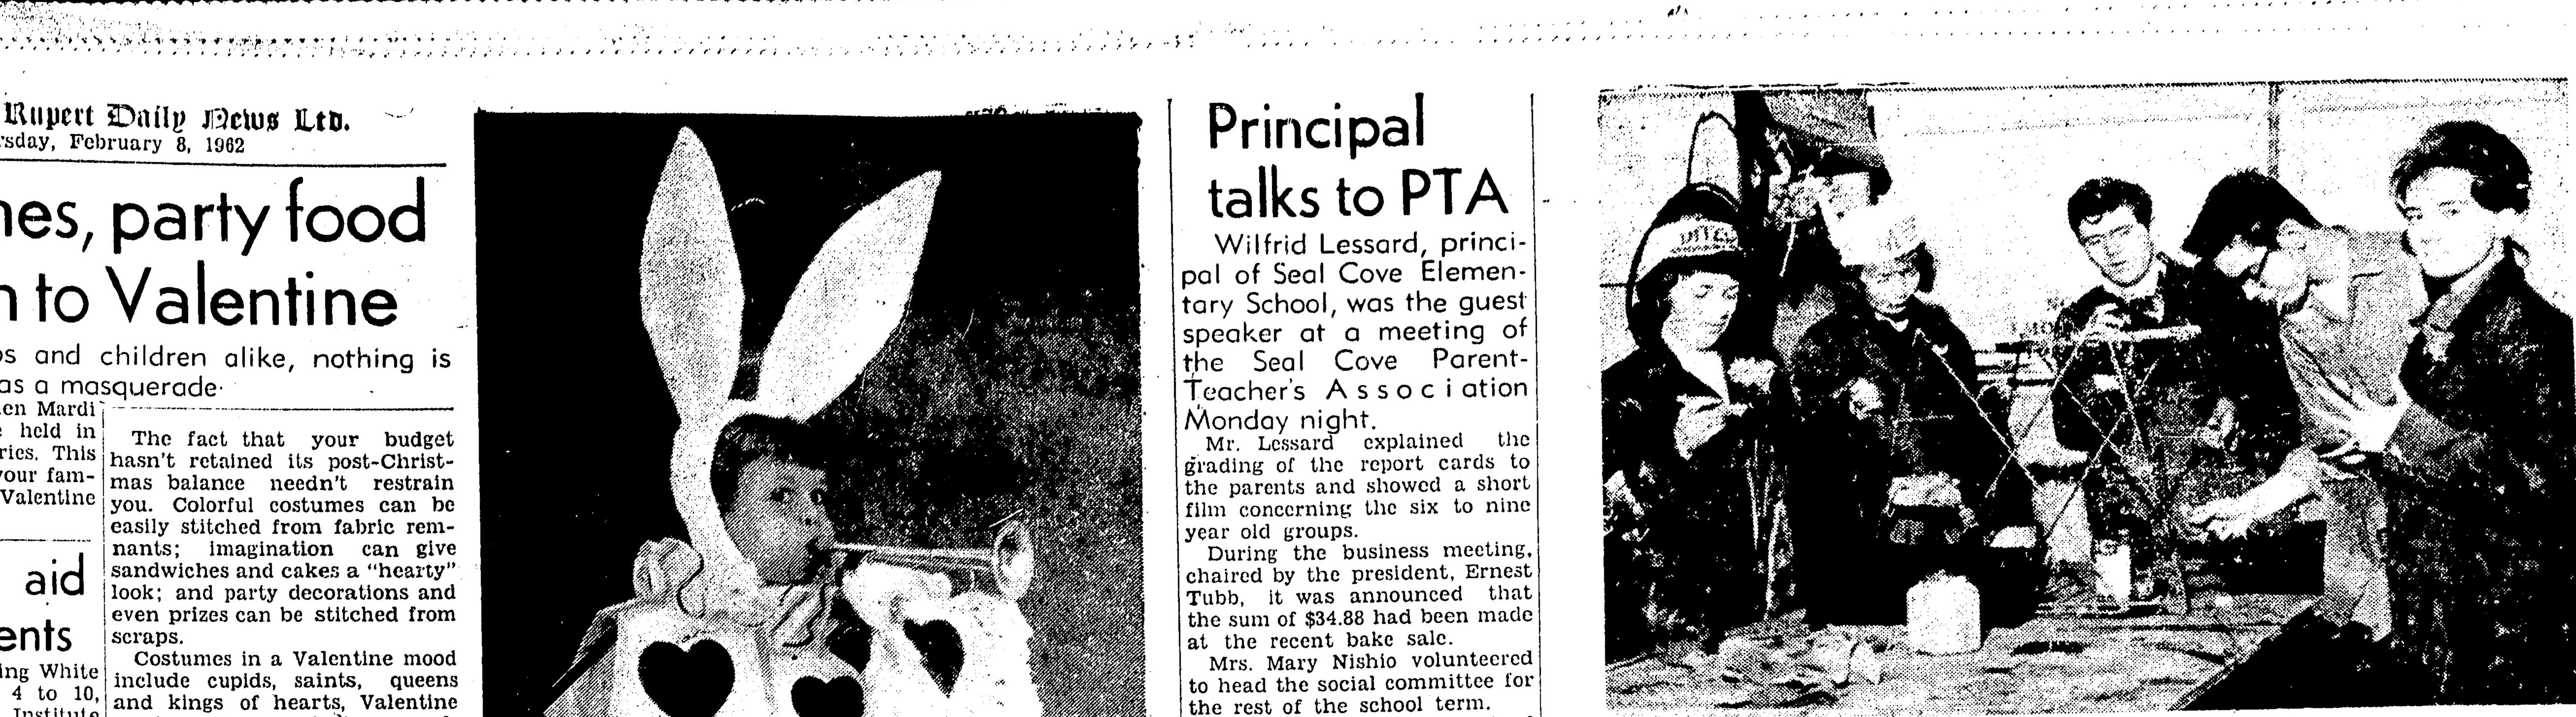

Wilfrid Lessard, principal of Seal Cove Elementary School, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the Seal Cove Parent-Teacher's Association Monday night.

Mr. Lessard explained the grading of the report cards to the parents and showed a short film concerning the six to nine, year old groups.

During the business meeting. chaired by the president, Ernest Tubb, it was announced that the sum of $34.88 had been made at the recent bake sale.

Mrs. Mary Nishio volunteered to head the social committee for the rest of the school term.

The meeting voted that school shields be ordered and offered, to the children at cost price. Chevrons and book awards would be given to deserving pupils at the end of the term. The next meeting of the PTA will be held March 5.

LEARN ABOUT BUSINESS — Members of Junior Achievement in Windsor, Ont., a group of business-minded high school students, put the finishing touches to boards on which they will attach luminous house numbers. The house numbers are one of many items turned out by the Achievers who establish their own companies, raise capital, manage and sell the products. This photo was taken and processed by CAMCO, a Junior Achievement photographic firm. Left to right are: Judy Arquette, Judy Williamson, David Edwards, Albert DeMers, Karen Beasley.

Bass-baritone to sing here on Alaska Trail

A change in artists has been announced in the been appointed assistant provin-A change in artists has been announced in the cial commissioner of Rovers ends and general rummage are next program of the Alaska Music Trail concert scouts, it has been announced by needed for the rumage sale to be scheduled here on February 27, it has been reported W. G. H. Roaf, provincial com- held at the First Presbyterian by Mrs. John Laurie, publicity chairman of the Prince missioner of B.C., Yukon Provin- Church hall at 9:30 a.m. March

Rupert Concert Society. The artist who was scheduled He has appeared twice at the in Haney, Mr. De Wolf has been at the home of the president, for the concert, Aurelio Estan- Los Angeles Philharmonic audi- Rover Scout leader of the First Mrs. W. D. Sutherland, 1045 Borislo, a baritone from the Philip- torium with the southern Cali- Maple Ridge-Pitt Meadows dis- den Street, Tuesday night. pine Islands, has become ill and fornia Mormon choir in the trict for the past five years. In Anyone wishing to donate has had to cancel all futuure "Messiah" and sang the bass this capacity, he has spearhead these things is asked to phone tions come to, him naturally era auditions. from a family with a strong musical background. His mother In 1956 he married his leading doors. Mr. De Wolf has as hobf the most important influ- picture and television work. They have a baby girl.

He has been replaced on the mel. baritone from California.

school and turned down profes- Miss Elaine Korman of Coleman, sional baseball contracts to be- Alta. A graduate of John Oliver come a dramatic actor. He ap- High School in Vancouver, Miss peared in dramatic and musical Korman, has studied with the comedies at playhouses in Holly- Toronto Conservatory of Music.

with Gwendolyn Williams Koldsing classical music and inter- ofsky, who has been here as ac-Other church officials taking T. R. Lloyd and Mrs. Johnstone, fice were Henry Vanderheide, WMS secretary and treasurer: took all his time and the enter-Besides singing in many prom-

W. Johnstone and Mrs. P. H. secretary and treasurer; Heather Linzey, communion committee; Moore, senior Young People's Mr. Ristow has performed over Royal Academy of Music. land, where she studied with the FIRST PHONOGRAPH tions as Marin Symphone, San duce recorded sound, using tinthe foil records, was made by Thomas Edison in 1877. Los Angeles String Society.

Angeles, Mis Korman studied

Rover leader | Kummage needed appointed T. E. De Wolf of Haney has

Manager of a retail food store meeting of the Ladies' Aid held roles at the Bach Festival in Car-ed the formation of new crows 5377, the president said. in his district and in other parts. The meeting also made tentatour by Roderick Ristow, a bass- Last year, Mr. Ristow was the of the province and has been tive plans for a spring tea to male winner of the western active in Rover Scout promotion be held on April 18. Mr. Ristow's musical inclina- states regional Metropolitan Op- and in the training of Rover Refreshments were served to Scout leaders.

was an accomplished pianist, lady while performing in a mular bies. canocing, snowshoeing, rock and his father, a fine bass singard wife is still active in motion of the misst interval of the misst Advertising freer life. To the sighted it is a Born in Pasadena, Calif., Mr. Accompanist for this tour will Ristow was active in sports at be a young Canadian pianist, Ristow was active in sports at be a young Canadian pianist,

for church sale

conclude the meeting.

Clothing, books, odds and

Boy Scout Week

Feb. 18 - 25/62

Something deliciously new has been added..

Now you can have the famous Peek Frean Digestive and the Peek Frean Assorted, chocolate coated!

With every tasty Peek Frean biscuit in these packets, generously drenched with imported milk chocolate, they're practically irresistible!

But if you're not a confirmed chocolate lover 'don't despair. You can always buy, almost anywhere, Peek Frean's plain digestive and Peek Frean's

The state of the s

PRINTED PATTERN A 678 SIZES 10-18

SLEEK SHEATH, FLARING CAPE COAT --- each simple to sew, . together an outstanding Spring costume. The designer is famed Don Loper, fushion wizard of the West Coast. He cuts collar and cont all in one a real cut in time and work, Princess souning shapes the beautiful bodice fit of the dress. Really, go to town on fabrics -- choose solid, print or tweed in wool, slik shantung, Jorsoy, linen, ribbed silk or collen. Then, go to town from morn to moontime in this all-occasion costume. Printed Pattern A678 is available in Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 16 dress requires 234 yards 30-inch fabric; cont