GIRL GUIDES' XMAS PARTY

Delightful Affair at St. Andrew's Cathedral Hall

Friday evening, St. Andrew's Cathedral Church Hall was the scene of a delightful Christmas Party. The Guides of the First Prince Rupert Company, under Commissioner Honora L. Silversides, entertained the Guides of the Second Prince Rupert Company, under Captain Pat Clark, and of the Third Prince Rupert Company under Captain Marjorie Anstey.

The hall was simply but tastefully decorated in red and green. The tables, set out in cabaret style, each had a centrepiece of red and green and a Christmas basket of candy and nuts for each girl. After dinner, there was a short program. Guide Ethel Moosehouse played on the piano "Song of the Lark." First Prince Rupert Guide Company sang "Silent Night." Guide Pat Lemon played "Moll's Dance" on the piano and Guides Betty Garner and Mary Ellen MacKenzie put on a short skit. The program was followed by games and the evening came to a close with a Guide camp fire and singing.

The First Prince Rupert Company were in charge of decorations and entertainment for the evening and the Third Prince Rupert Company were responsible for the dinner.
