TERRACE SCOUTS GOING TO OTTAWA —TEACHERS GOING SOUTH SHORTLY

To help defray the expenses of the Terrace Scouts who are going to the Scout Jamboree at Ottawa this summer, a white elephant auction sale, conducted by the First Terrace Scout Association was held outdoors, opposite the police station on Saturday afternoon last. Oliver Baxter was the auctioneer. Business was fairly good but rain haited proceedings and it was decided to postpone the sale until next Saturday afternoon. All the goods for auction had been donated. The C.P.A. is giving free transportation from Prince Rupert to Vancouver to those scouts from this district who are attending the Jamboree at Ottawa. Roy Clifford, Francis Gavan and Aaron Haaland are the local scouts.

Decorated with lupins and buttercups, the blue and gold colors of the club the tables set in the Orange Hall for a banquet on Thursday evening were placed in the form of the letter "K." Covers were laid for sixty people, the occasion being in honor of all who helped on May 24 celebrations. Special guests were Shirley Cole, Wilfred Woods, Mrs. Zorne, J. Barman, Mr. and Mrs. Watson L. Bailey and Mrs. Greer. Novel games were enjoyed by all under the direction of Rev. P. M. Mallett.

Sam Kirkaldy left on Thursday for Vancouver where he will enter Shaughnessy Military Hospital for special treatment.

George de Kergommeaux spent two days in town this week driving in from Port Edward where he is employed with Campbell and Bennett.

Teachers of the elementary school who will be leaving Terrace on June 30 are Miss Annie Lips, who is going by steamer to Vancouver and who will take a special finishing course at the University of Britsh Columbia; Miss B. Chester, Miss V. Booth, Miss Y. Larson and H. Noakes are leaving Prince Rupert by plane for the south.

The secretary of the Canadian Legion has been approached by Canadian National Railways authorities, to find out, who, among the war brides of the district, would be interested in returning to the old country on a trip with "War Bride Pilgrimage."

Mrs. Attwood left on Tuesday's train for Trail via Prince Rupert and Vancouver.

Mrs. P. McIlroy is at present visiting in Prince George.

Sam Kirkaldy has re-entered hospital for further medical care.

Frank Earl has arrived back in Terrace, bringing in a new truck for delivery to the Terrace Machine Shop.

Returning from a holiday trip to the south, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne with their daughter, Mrs. Pache, and her two children collided with another car 25 miles east of Burns Lake as they were rounding a curve on the hill. Except for a few bruises and badly shaken up, they all escaped injury, but the journey to Terrace had to be completed by taxi as their own car was so badly damaged. They arrived home on Friday evening.

A. M. Campbell of Prince George is in town and is the guest of his brother. Stuart Campbell of Campbell Cabins.

Harvey LeBlanc left on Saturday morning's train for New Brunswick where he will visit his sister.

Mr. McLean of the Workmen's Compensation Board is spending a few days in town on routine business.

Will Robinson, accompanied by H. King, drove to Telkwa on Monday returning with E. T. Applewhaite on Tuesday.

A WEEKLY INFORMATION SERVICE

MONTREAL, June 23rd—Did you know . . . that in a recent impartial test among American women from Coast to Coast, the NEW WOODBURY POWDER was voted the 1 to 1 favourite? You'll love it, too! . . . you'll like it for the smooth-as-satin finish—the natural, "unpowdery" look its special ingredient gives to your skin. And for Summer, you'll love that tawny glowing shade, Tropic Tan. A lovely bronze, Tropic Tan looks natural on your skin—not the least bit powdery. There are six other flattering shades in New Woodbury Powder—all available in three convenient sizes—one "purse" size and so inexpensive—65c, 37c, 19c.

"One Thing I'll Be Sure To Remember when I'm packing groceries to take to our cottage . . . TENDER LEAF TEA BALLS!" That's what a reader writes to me. She says she first tried Tender Leaf Tea Balls when she read about them here a month ago . . . and that their wonderful flavour lived up to her expectations completely! You see Tender Leaf Tea Balls are Orange Pekoe at its tastiest . . . made from the little top leaves! And you'll find them so very easy to serve . . . so very economical! For it's a fact that you can get two cups of tea from just one tea ball! So why not take a tip from an enthusiastic reader? Be sure you have a good supply of Tender Leaf Tea Balls to take along to your Summer cottage!

An Unforgettable Summer Evening! . . . you—ready for the dance—looking your loveliest—feeling your gayest—in a dress that's a dream! You'll want to make the most of this wonderful evening! You'll want to be sure of your popularity by being sure of your daintiness. Don't, for a minute, risk offending due to perspiration odour! That's why I urge you to use NONSPI, the truly effective liquid deodorant and anti-perspirant! It's so safe—won't harm your lovely dance-dress . . . and, what's more—won't cause skin irritation! Just a few seconds with Nonspi stops perspiration before it begins . . . and it's so very simple to apply with its convenient, completely sanitary applicator. Nonspi has the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval. Ask your druggist for Nonspi tomorrow—it's your social assurance!

A Very Important Something to take along with you to your summer cottage . . . CROWN BRAND CORN SYRUP! For, just between us kitchen "wizards"—no kitchen is complete without a really adequate supply of Crown Brand! You'll never be haunted by the "what-to-have-for-dinner" blues when there's Crown Brand handy, for there's almost no end to the delicious dishes you can make with it. Everything—from pies to baked tomatoes—tastes better when it's flavoured deliciously with this popular corn syrup. So, when you're ordering groceries for the "country", be sure to order a good supply of Crown Brand—so handy to pack-'n-carry in its new cone-topped tins!

Here's One Mealtime Tragedy You Can Avoid! When you've spent time choosing the best ingredients for your fruit and vegetable salads — and paid good money for them . . . don't run the risk of ruining the final result by using ordinary vinegar in your dressings! Use HEINZ VINEGARS — aged and mellowed in wood, they're flavour-perfect . . . and for your money—the very best you can buy! Yes, Heinz Vinegars — Heinz White, Malt and Cider Vinegar—do more for salads because they're uniform in strength — sparkling clear and so full-flavoured a little goes a long way. That's why I urge you to buy 'n try Heinz Vinegars for truly superb salad dressings!

Eyes Rested And Refreshed can make a world of difference in the way you feel. So often when your eyes are tired, you feel tired all over. So at the first sign of tired eyes—here's what to do: soothe and comfort them with MURINE. In fact, I advise two drops of Murine in each eye night and morning and whenever your eyes tell you to. And, though this is a good idea the year 'round, it's specially good in the summer—with summer sun and wind putting an extra tax on your eyes. You see, Murine's skilful blend of 7 ingredients cleanses and soothes eyes that are tired—instantly relieves that weary, used-up feeling! So do ask your druggist for Murine today!

NOVEL "WISHING WELL" SHOWER

A novel idea was carried out in a shower in honor of Miss Gladys Foster whose marriage to Fred Smith takes place on July 7. Mrs. Jack Evans and Miss Jeanne Thompson were co hostesses for the affair which was held at the home of the latter Saturday evening. After playing of games a "Wishing Well," full of gifts, was brought in and each gift had to be drawn out of the well by the bride-to-be. Delicious refreshments brought the evening to a close.

Those present, besides the guest of honor and hostesses, were Mesdames E. R. Foster, J. W. Eastwood, Katherine Stone, J. A. Rutherford, H. S. Cobb, Crawford Moore, Tommy Fraser, Jack Leeming, Mellor, sr., S. J. Mellor, William Johnson, A. Thompson, and the Misses Betty MacKenzie, Francis Moore, Glenna Moore, Dorothy McLeod, and Marge Anstey.
