Joe Louis In Decline

Has Not Taken So Much Punishment During Career

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK (AP) — We wouldn't care to go on record saying that the best way to promote clear, quick thinking is to go about tapping yourself on the head with a mallet at regular intervals, but we don't believe Joe Louis' apparent decline as a fist fighter has anything to do with head punishment he has taken in the ring.

We think it is a natural decline with advancing years, combined with comparative inactivity. When you come right down to it, Louis has taken little punishment for a man who has been fighting as long as he has.

The big guy has a vast expanse of jaw and cheek, an inviting target indeed. Also, he doesn't take a punch there any too well. Yet he has been knocked out only once, when Max Schmeling gave him his worst beating .

You can toss out at least half of Louis' bouts as affairs in which he took no punishment whatsoever. In most of the others he took little more than he would in his training camp.

You can't say that Johnny Paychek, Lou Nova, Gus Dorazio, Jack Roper, John Henry Lewis, King Levinsky, Schmeling the second time around, Billy Conn the second time and several other abrupt victims caused him physical discomfort.

In fact, you can count on your fingers the bouts in which he was hurt. Schmeling the first time, of course. Tony Galento hit him a couple of roundhouse whacks, putting him down once, but we don't think Joe was hurt anywhere but his feelings.

SCHMELING-WALCOTT GAVE WORST BEATINGS

Billy Conn slapped him around somewhat in their first meeting. Buddy Baer sent him sprawling out of the ring, but it was more of a push. Tami Mauriello tagged him one good one, and Jersey Joe Walcott gave him his worst beating next to that dished out by Schmeling.

Only in the first Schmeling and the Walcott fights was Louis what might be called beaten up.

If a man who has been knocked out just once, and taken only one other beating, is so affected that he loses his co-ordination and ability to think in double time, we hate to think what could have been happening to some other fighters who are listed in Nat Fleischer's ring record book.

There was a lightweight named Henry (Kid) Briere, for instance, who was knocked out 19 times in three years. And a light heavyweight tagged Billy Beauford who was kayoed 13 times in 22 bouts in a year.

On the other side of the picture are able gents such as Willie Pep, who has lost only one fight in his career, that a decision to Sammy Angott, then lightweight champion. And Ray Robinson, with only a decision lost to Jake Lamotta blotting his rerord.

Getting back to Louis, it seems logical that a fellow who is as easily hurt by a punch to the head as he is, and yet has been knocked out only once, hasn't taken too many on the lug.

Playground Work Is Complimented

Among many complimentary references heard of various Civic Centre activities at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Civic Centre Association Thursday night was one in regard to the work of the staff in connection with the supervision of Gyro playground activities during the summer months. Speaking on this subject was J. S. Wilson who felt that the work in this connection was among the most valuable undertaken under the Civic Centre agels.

Native Hoop Tourney Here

Second annual native basketball tournament for the northern B.C. championship will be played here in the Civic Centre gymnasium on March 3, 4 and 5, Indian Agent F. E. Anfield said last night. Arrangements for the three-day series have been completed with the Civic Centre authorities.

This season's play-offs will see eight teams competing, two more than last year. The new teams will be Massett and Hartley Bay. Teams which took part last year were Port Simpson, Metlakatla, Kitkatla, Kitimaat, Kincolith, Greenville and Aiyansh.

Winner of last year's native tournament was Kincolith.

George Robinson, secretary of the B.C. Native Batsketball Association said today that a meeting of the executive has been called by Paul Price, of Port Simpson, president of the organization, to be held here on February 3 to arrange the drawings of the competing teams and attend to other details.

From now on, month by month
can be cashed!

THE payoff on War Savings Certificates has begun. If you are among the thrifty people who own War Savings Certificates, NOW is the time to look them over, sort them out by months and as they fall due, endorse them and mail to Ottawa as described on the back of each Certificate. A cheque for the full face value of each Certificate will be sent to you in due course.

But here is another suggestion...

Have the Royal Bank of Canada do all this "office work" and sorting for you. Save yourself the bother of searching out the right pieces of paper each month, endorsing them and mailing them off to Ottawa.

Here's what you do: Bring all your War Savings Certificates which you have at home or in your safe deposit box, to your nearest Royal Bank Branch. We will put them in our vaults for safekeeping.

As the Certificates fall due, we will cash them for you and deposit the full face value (which includes interest) in the savings account of the registered owner, automatically. If you have no account with us, we will open one for you for this purpose.

The cost of this service, including safekeeping until your Certificates mature, is low, as the following table shows.

SAFEKEEPING CHARGES FOR WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES, INCLUDING AUTOMATIC REDEMPTION WHEN DUE—

For each	$5	Certificate	15¢
" "	$10	"	20¢
" "	$25	"	25¢
" "	$50	"	30¢
" "	$100	"	55¢
" "	$500	"	$1.05

• If your Certificates are already lodged with us for safekeeping, we will arrange for their automatic redemption, as described above, at a nominal charge of 5¢ per Certificate, regardless of the face value.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS LABOUR-SAVING SERVICE. IT IS AVAILABLE TO YOU AT ANY BRANCH OF THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA

REMINDER
Money invested in War Savings Certificates is money you have SAVED. The cash you receive for them now gives you a neat nest egg for the future. Leave the proceeds from your War Savings Certificates in the bank, earning interest.
