WE Have just had some very fine property listed that warrants your investigating. For example, there are two choice view lots in Section Two that are partially cleared and excavated. The owner is leaving town and must sacrifice. There is also a lovely home out there with three bedrooms, sunporch, dining room, etc. as well as a fenced yard all on two lots. Very reasonable too.

We also have some business lots downtown. There are very few of these left so if you are interested in low cost quality property see us at once.

To inspect any of this property or other listings that we have, Phone 342 or call into the office at 307 Third Avenue.

PEOPLES STORE WINS LADIES' TITLE; STONE'S TAKE JR. CHAMPIONSHIP

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Peoples Store 24 (78); High School 22 (76); Stone's 23; 65 Taxi 19

Final two items of championship silverware in the city basketball league were attached Saturday night when Peoples Stire won the Commander Cree trophy in the Ladies' Division and Stone's walked away with the Civic Centre trophy, emblem of play-off victory in the Junior League.

The two championship games preceded an exhibition match which settled, for the season at least, the question as to whether the Youngsters or Oldsters in the Senior section of the league had claims to superiority because of age. The Oldsters apparently had it, but by a narrow margin.

In the Ladies' League final, Peoples Store broke a deadlock with High School for advantage in what initially billed at a two-game, total score series. However, when both teams emerged from two periods of overtime in the second game last Tuesday night with the total score tied at 54-54, both coaches decided that a third game was necessary.

Saturday night's conflict resulted in Peoples Store winning by a score of 24-22, bringing the total points for the series to 78-76 in their favor.

In the second game of the best-of-three in the Junior finals, Stone's defeated 65 Taxi 23-19 to claim the Civic Centre trophy. The first game on Wednesday night was a 30-24 victory for Stone's.

CONTINUOUS ADVANTAGE

In the Ladies' division game, Peoples Store maintained a continuous advantage over the hard-fighting students, garnering enough points in the early quarters to give them a lead which withstood a four-quarter assault.

Peoples Store netted eight points during the first quarter, against High School's four, and by half-time had 14 points while High School had scored only eight.

Third quarter score stood at 19-13 in favor of Peoples Store and a drive which netted the students nine points failed to overcome the working girls' lead. They scored five points to bring their final score to 24 as against 22 for the students.

Hamilton of High School scored eight points and McLeod of Peoples Store tallied a similar number for Peoples Store.

STONE'S HAD SLIGHT EDGE

In the Junior game, Stone's carried a slight edge throughout. The conflict was not particularly inspiring, being featured by poor shooting by both teams. 65 Taxi took an initial lead, which was overcome in the second quarter by Stone's.

Top scorers were Bill of 65 Taxi and McChesney of Stone's, each of whom netted eight points.

The contest of youth versus age was a battle of attrition with the oldsters showing more staying power. Referee Johnny Comandina, with justice, handed out more fouls than in any game of the season—45 in all. Macphee and Dominato each took a permanent spot on the oldsters' bench and Rupert Holkestad was banished from the ranks of the youngsters.

Lindsay and Davis led the scoring with the former garnering 14 points and the latter 18.

The scoring:

Ladies' Finals

Peoples Store—Hamilton 8, McLeod 8, Bill, Sedgwick 6, Matson 4, Webster, Wide.

High School—Hamilton 8, Pavich 5, Budinich 6, Thain 2, Howe 1, Kennedy, Thompson, Lykegaard, Smith Greenwood.

Junior Finals

Stone's—McChesney 8, Dumas 2, Lesieur 5, Sharon 3, Christoff 5, Walsh.

65 Taxi—Bill 8, Ratchford, Van Pykstra 3, Holt 3, Helin 3, Martinsen 2, Sedgwick.
