THE CALLARIAN CONTINTED CET AS BEG GAMES OFFICIALLY OPEN

PERTH (CP) — Under a broiling sun, Prince Philip officially opened the seventh British Empire Games today while guns boomed and RAF and RAAF jets zoomed overhead in a royal fly-past.

It was six years to the day since Philip opened the 1956 Olympic Games in Melbourne. Heat that reached the 90s and pesky bushflies plagued the capacity crowd of 50,000 that packed the new $2,240,000 Perry Lakes Stadium in the suburbs of this western Australian city of 500,000.

More than 1,000 athletes and officials from 35 countries took part in the march-past after Philip, as president of the British Empire and Commonwealth Games Federation, declared the games open.

Friday morning Canada's three sprinters — Harry Jerome of Vancouver, Lynn Eves of Saanichton, B.C., and Bob Fisher-Smith of Ottawa — will line up in the 100yard dash heats.

Jerome is seeded No. 1 of the 49 competitors.
