
CANADA BARS SOVIET FROM CAMP SHILO—Canada did not permit Soviet military attaches to visit military establishments as a result of change in international policy, it was announced by the national defence department in connection with a tour last week of Camp Shilo, Man., where this paratorooper trains. Camp Shilo, training ground for paratroops, was visited by foreign military attaches who did not include U.S.S.R. military attaches Lt. Col. Nikolai N. Serov and his assistant, Lt. Col. Ivan N. Pavshovkov.

Basketball Plans Made

Arrangements Finalized for Tourney Here Next Month

Arrangements have to large extent been finalized for the Northern British Columbia native basketball championship to be held in the city March 3, 4 and 5. A session of the executive of the native basketball association has been held with Indian Agent E. Earl Anfield and Civic Centre Director E. D. Forward. Paul Price of Port Simpson is chairman of the native basketball association.

Entries will close February 15 but already four teams have entered — Kitimaat, Kincolith Massett and Port Simpson Athletic Club. At least two more teams are exected, making a total of six.

Last year the championship was won by Kincolith, Aiyansh having been the other finalist.

SHORT SPORT

Toronto Argonauts of the senior Ontario Hockey Association set a new league mark, 42 years ago by defeating Toronto Marlbores 21-5 at Toronto.

Age conditions for the King's Plate, Toronto turf classic, were changed 10 years ago, restricting the race to three-year-old horses. Bunty Lawless, a bay colt by Ladder out of Mintwina, owned by H. F. Morrissey of Toronto, was the 1938 winner.

Dave Castilloux, Canadian welterweight boxing champion, gained a 10-round decision over Charlie Gomer of Baltimore eight years ago tonight at Maple Leaf Gardens. It was the Baltimore fighter's first defeat in 20 fights. The title now is held by Johnny Greco.

BASKETBALL CHATTER

(By BILL LONG)

If Coach Alex Bill were granted his wish today it no doubt would result in big Angus MacPhee showing up for tonight's opening game of the international series with Ketchikan. Chances of the long lad from the Highlands arriving in time for the game are nil. He is at Klemtu, a rather remote spot on the steamship lane between here and Ocean Falls, and will hardly return for a week or so yet.

Angus' shoes will be filled this evening by Rupert Holkestad, the leading scorer in the local league and a fairish sort of a boy in anyone's company. Rupert, no doubt, will carry the load forced upon him very ably but he is still a youngster and inclined to be bashful and will have to shake some of his modesty in order to keep up with our Alaskan visitors.

Full starting line-up for Rupert will be Holkestad, Lindsay, Lavigne, Dominato and Forman to start and Fitch, Beynon, Hartwig and Flaten to add strength. This is not a weak line-up by any means when one sees the statistics in league competition and fans can rest assured that they will be kept very interested in the proceedings for the full forty minutes of play.

Unfortunately the game this evening will not be broadcast but those unable to be present on Friday and Saturday will be entertained by Neil Ross over CFPR. There still seems to be some misunderstanding as to the number of games and it has been made clear by the Basketball Association thatthis series will depart from the old two game total point affairs to a two of three count. This gives the visiting team a much better chance to become used to the strange floor in case of a loss the first evening.

Preliminary games will start at 7:15 with High School vs. Merchants and the feature game at 8:30.
