Shipping Yacht Across Canada

HALIFAX—On the first leg of a 4,000-mile trip from Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, to Nanaimo, British Columbia, a sleek, new forty-foot yacht arrived here last night perched thirteen feet from the ground on a Canadian National Railways flat car.

Ready to take to the seas as a cabin cruiser it is the fourth boat to be built at Wedgeport world famous tuna fishing grounds near Yarmouth, in the past year. Three others were fishing vessels two of which went to Vancouver and the other to New York.

"We hope to develop a big boat building trade for Wedgeport," said A. R. Hicks, the shipper. "I believe we can prove our ability to construct good boats. From these initial orders we expect to have a growing demand in the next year or two from other sections of Canada and the United States."

To handle the unusually "high and wide" railway shipment special operating precautions had to be taken by the C.N.R. to insure proper clearances and protection against damage enroute it is being handled in fast freight trains.

The yacht, built by Ralph Pothier of Wedgeport and consigned to J. Addison, is forty feet long, twelve wide and more than nine high.

Commercials Win To Tie Local Baseball League

With young Dick Letourneau pitching a five-hitter and his buddies refusing to give in, Commercial Hotel's youthful entry in the senior baseball league tied up the league race with a dramatic victory in the final inning of a nine frame battle at Roosevelt Park last night. The many fans who stayed away from the hill top diamond last evening missed one of the finest exhibitions of the game seen here for some seasons. Many repetitions of such a contest should be in the offing during the baseball season.

Manager Dave Abel of the losing club could be blamed for changing horses in the stream yet his change did not appear too dangerous at the time. With Verne Ciccone doing a masterful job of holding the hotelmen to five hits in seven innings, Abel called on the veteran Jack Lindsay, apparently feeling that Ciccone was fading a little. Nothing happened out of the ordinary until the first half of the ninth inning when Cliff Dahl erred on a drive to short by Jack Ewart; Lindsay gave up a base on balls to Harry Marshall; Sammy Sinclair beat out a slow hit to Ted Arney at third base and scored Ewart to make the score two to one. With runners on second and third, Herb Morgan, Commercial catcher, doubled neatly over second, scoring Marshall and Sinclair to give his team a one run advantage.

Letourneau of Commercials allowed but seven hits in the full nine innings and was strong at the end of game even after being hit by Lindsay on his throwing arm. Vern Ciccone, pitching for Abel and Odowes, allowed five hits and struck out six batters. He allowed one base on balls.

Jack Lindsay was the losing pitcher in his first attempt this season even though he saw action on the mound for but one and a half innings. He struck out two men, allowed one base on balls and hit two batters.

The game was enlivened by spectacular fielding by Pavlikis, Simundson and Cornwall. Simundson, however, committed one of the few errors of the game which cost his team a run in the third inning. He dropped a difficult fly ball in centre field after travelling about forty yards to get his glove on it. Sammy Sinclair, right fielder for Commercials, grabbed a one-bounder off Dave Abel in the ninth that was called a caught ball by plate umpire Doug Kerr, but later called a safe hit by base umpire Letourneau who was closer to the play.

League is now tied up with Abel & Odowes and Commercials in first place. Watson Is. trail with two losses in as many starts.
