Jack McRae Says . . .

● That industry does not have to go here or there. Certain interests thought the Columbia Cellulose had to locate in Alaska. Again a strong lobby in Washington thought Alcan had to locate in Washington State or Alaska.

● These two great developments were encouraged and welcomed into our part of Northern British Columbia which for years lacked industry except for fishing industry which has been the sole background support of the north country.

● Liberal policy is pledged to continue the development of our natural resources.

BLACKWOOD on Bridge

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Realization of Hands Helps Make Contract

From the loudness of Mr. Muzzy's double, it have been assumed that this contract was down about five. Actually Mr. Muzzy was able to pile up exactly one trick.

Mr. Muzzy complained bitterly, after the deal was played, about his opponents' good luck. "Neither one of you had anything," he said.

He was referring to the fact, and of course it WAS a fact, that both Mr. Champion and Mr. Masters were rather slightly endowed with high cards. But here lies the whole point in my telling you about this hand.

Refusing to rely entirely on points" or honor count consideration (as Mr. Muzzy does), they skillfully described their respective holding to each other and the result was a realization that the North-South hands fit beautifully.

To Mr. Masters, the bidding made it most likely that his partner's strength was in the suits outside of spades. When he showed first round control of spades by his three spade bid, Mr. Champion was encouraged to show his ace of clubs in spite of the fact that he had little enough in high cards for his previous three heart bid. The four club bid rounded out Mr. Masters' hand and he decided to try for six.

Mr. Muzzy opened the king of spades (a trump or the king of clubs would have been better) and Mr. Masters ruffed. He over-took his king of hearts with dummy's ace, led a second spade and ruffed it. He entered dummy with the ace of clubs and ruffed another spade.

Ruffing a club put him on the board again to lead a fourth spade and ruff it. Now the last club was ruffed. Mr. Masters next led the last spade from the board and pitched his deuce of diamonds on it.

Mr. Muzzy won and it was his lead, holding the high club and the king and jack of diamonds. A diamond lead would go into Mr. Masters' ace-queen. Mr. Muzzy returned a club but Mr. Masters ruffed in dummy and discarded the queen of diamonds.

Fiery, Itching Toes And Feet

Here is a clean, stainless antiseptic oil that will do more to help you get rid of your trouble than anything you've ever used.

Its action is so powerfully penetrating that the itching is quickly relieved and in a short time you are free of that bothersome, fiery itching. The same is true of Barber's Itch, Salt Rheum, Eczema—other irritating unsightly skin troubles.

You can obtain Moone's Emerald Oil in the original bottle at any modern drug store. It is safe to use—and failure in any of the ailments noted above is rare indeed.
