ELMORE PHILPOTT

Progressive Party stands opposed to these policies. We call for a new national policy which is designed to make Canada turly great in a world at peace.

The new national policy of the Labor-Progressive Party calls for an end to Canadian subservience to the U.S. and for the full upholding of our national independence.

We stand for an end to the cold war through a meeting of the heads of the big powers, as is now proposed by Sir Winston Churchill.

We stand for big power agreement to limit armaments, thus saving us from economic ruin, and enabling Canada to raise living standards and increase social security.

The LPP calls for an end to our dependence on the U.S. market and in its stead trade with the British Commonwealth, people's China and all countries willing to trade with us.

The LPP calls for development of manufacturing and processing industries in all provinces, instead of reducing Canadians to hewers of wood and drawers of water for the U.S.

We resolutely stand for upholding Canadian democracy and the sovereignty of our parliament through repeal of the Emergency Powers Act and adoption of a bill of rights.

Water Is Best

MONTREAL (CP) — Summer heat sends thirsty people seeking endless varieties of liquid refreshment but water is best of all, says Dr. Adelard Groulx, city health director. However, he warned against drinking too much ice water.

'Kidnappers' Routed by West Germans

BERLIN (Reuters) — Three pistol-swinging East German policemen crossed 10 yards into the United States sector early today and threatened to abduct a West Berlin policeman and a customs official, West Berlin police headquarters announced.

The incident occurred near Potsdamer Platz, Berlin's trouble spot, where the Soviet sector meets the U.S. and British sectors.

The three East German policemen shouted: "Now the time has come to catch you," while three others stood on the sector boundary pointing their tommy-guns at the West Berliners.

The West Berlin policeman whistled for help. When West Berlin police radio cars arrived the three fled.

"We believe that the East German youngsters just wanted to show off a bit," said police.
