FBI Arrest Communists

PHILADELPHIA (CP) — Six tight-lipped men were scooped up in a Federal Bureau of Investigation dragnet Thursday on charges they conspired "to overthrow the United States government by force and violence."

FBI agents made the arrests including that of Joseph Kuzma, 41, identified as Communist party trade union secretary in Pennsylvania. He was seized as he walked away from a Communist party meeting here.

Squelch Ragweed

YARMOUTH, N.S. (CP)—Spraying of ragweed was carried out again this year by the Yarmouth county tourist committee, which years ago made Yarmouth the first town in Nova Scotia to attack ragweed as a community effort. While the pollen count is low, efforts are being made to eliminate the hay-fever menace entirely.

Remember when

Gene Tunney abandoned his world heavyweight boxing title by announcing his retirement from the ring 25 years ago today. He had taken the championship from Jack Dempsey two years before and the return bout at Chicago Sept. 22, 1927 drew the largest gate receipts in fight history.
