SIX KILLED AT STADIUM

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Six persons were trampled to death Wednesday night in the crush of more than 70,0000 persons trying to jam into National Stadium for the finals of the South American soccer tournament. An official estimated 100 others suffered minor injuries.

Among the dead were two women who came from 250 miles away to witness the championship between Chile and Argentina. Argentina won 1-0.

The official attendance was 52,936, but at least 18,000 others are believed to have forced their way in.

Pushovers Increase Lead In Mixed 5-Pin League

Pushovers increased their first-place lead over Fashion Footwear to nine points Thursday to show a total of 64 points in A division of the Mixed Five-Pin Bowling League.

The league leaders took three points off Frosty Lockers while the Footwear entry were losing three to Fowlie and Ruttle.

Hill's Shoes and The Daily News, with their last game tied will decide who gets the extra point on the totals of the first frames of their first games tonight.

Esso Extras and Cook's Jewellers split the scoring honors in B league between them, with Skip Storrie of Esso's taking women's high single for her 288 game while her team scored high single for a 1093 10-frame total. Isla and Ed Garner of Cook's took the other players game total of 601 for women's high triple and Ed scoring 269 and 670 for men's high single and three. Cook's also posted team high three for their 2950 three-game total.

In A loop, Lois Keays posted a 293 game for women's high three to aid Shenton's to take team high single and triple on 1260 and 3786 scores. Kay Wood of Whalen's turned in three games totalling 699 for women's high three and Vic Menzies of Pushovers showed a 298 game for men's high single.
