All-Australian Singles Seen As U.S. Stars Given Beating

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—U.S. hopes of sweeping the Australian national tennis singles and doubles championships—in addition to the U.S. Davis Cup triumph over the Aussies in December—blew up today.

Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, the only American in the semi-finals, went down to a surprise straight-set defeat at the hands of Ken Rosewall, 8-6, 6-3, 6-3.

This set up an all-Australian final since Lew Hoad earlier had virtually blasted Rex Hartwig off the court in a fast 50-minute victory 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

Rosewall's triumph was as much a surprise to Trabert as to the crowd of 4,000 who watched in 70-degree temperature compared to the 102-degree heat earlier in the week.

Trabert went into the match full of confidence after his victory Friday with Vic Seixas in the doubles final.

But Rosewall, who showed a return to his uncannily accurate game of a year ago, had Tony in trouble from the start. Time and again, he scored with shots that landed inches inside the baselines as Trabert went to the net.

Tony switched tactics and stayed in the backcourt for a while, but he fared no better. Rosewall often beat him in driving rallies and volleying winners from the net.

STRAWBERRIES BLOOM

GLACE BAY, N.S. (AP)—If you don't believe Cape Breton has been having one of its mildest winters on record, ask George Gallant. He had strawberry plants in blossom and rhubarb growing inches above the ground in mid-January. They were not a late fall crop. "These are brand new," said Gallant.

Rizzuto Plans To Regain Regular Spot

NEW YORK (AP)—Phil Rizzutto vowed today he would regain his regular shortstop position with New York Yankees next season despite the apparent skepticism of manager Casey Stengel.

Little Phil, whose batting average slumped last year to a miserable .194, said he has been working hard all winter getting himself in shape for what he termed an all-out effort to "show the manager I can still play ball."

Rizzuto, 36 last September, Friday signed his 12th contract as a Yankee, accepting a 12½-per-cent cut from his $40,000 salary of a year ago.

At the same time Yankees announced they had corralled 18-year-old Tom Carroll, a sophmore shortstop at Notre Dame, for the same $35,000 they gave Rizzuto.

NEWFOUNDLAND MOOSE

GRAND FALLS, Nfld. (AP)—While moose hunting has been banned for years in parts of the Canadian mainland, it's still a big sport in Newfoundland. Wildlife officer Art Butt reported 141 were shot in the Sandy Lake area near here in December. Caribou have been sighted at times in the same district.

EXTRA CLEAN-UP

ST. ALBAN'S, Nfld. (AP)—Lumberjacks protest a regulation which makes it necessary for them to drag old tree-tops from the woods. In a petition to the Newfoundland government, they said removal with horses interferes with lumbering. The regulation is enforced as a fire precaution.
