The lace-covered bride's table held tall white tapers and a blanket of flowers circling the lovely three-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Le Blanc and decorated by Mr. Robert Murray.

Mr. Johnny Comadina was master of ceremonies, reading several congratulatory telegrams, and Mr. Alex Bill proposed the toast to the bride. In charge of serving were Mrs. S. Dickens, sister of the groom, and Mrs. M. Munizaba.

For her wedding trip, the bride donned a smart, softly tailored suit of pale grey-green with mink neck piece and black accessories, her corsage matching her bridal bouquet.

Following their honeymoon, the pair will make their home in Prince Rupert where the groom is employed as a logger by MacDonald and Postuk and the bride formerly was employed by Canadian National Telegraphs.

Miscellaneous Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Among the many events last week honoring Miss Mary Postuk, whose marriage to Raymond Schaeffer took place Saturday, was a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Syd Dickens, 1271 Beach Place.

Co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Syd Dickens and Mrs. Oscar Wingham.

Guests played bingo until a beautifully decorated basket, filled with packages of gifts, was presented to the guest of honor by Mrs. Dickens and her two daughters, Lorraine and Mary Anne.

When the presents had been opened and admired by the guest of honor she was seated at the head of a decorated table and refreshments were served.

Along with co-hostsses Mrs. Dickens and Mrs. Oscar Wingham guests attending were Mrs. Stan Veitch, Mrs. Harold Schaeffer, Mrs. John Gurvich, Mrs. Michael Munizaba, Mrs. Caroline Schaeffer, Mrs. Roland Leblanc, Mrs. A. Fossum, Mrs. Web Pierce, Mrs. Albert E. Dickens Jr., Mrs. Art Murray, Mrs. Alex Turnovoy, Mrs. Percy Bond, Mrs. William Rothwell, Mrs. Bagshaw and Miss Violet Managlovich.

Gifts were also received from invited guests Mrs. Ed Garner, Miss Sheila Ramsay, Mrs. Steve King, Mrs. William Schaeffer and Mrs. V. Hanson who were unable to attend.

CWBC Officers Installed In Impressive Ceremony

In an impressive candle-light ceremony Friday night at the Broadway Cafe new officers of the Credit Women's Breakfast Club were installed by Mrs. Jocelyn Bolton.

Sworn into office were Mrs. Carl Sauer, president; Miss Mildred Olson, vice-president; Mrs. John Botsford, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Georgeson, recording secretary; Mrs. Jan van Ireland, treasurer.

Directors for the coming year are Mrs. Beatrice Grant, Mrs. Mary Turner, Miss Margaret Johansen and Mrs. Harold Marshall.

In her official address Mrs. Bolton told members that she had never benefitted more from any club. The educational course, she said, was invaluable in business life, but the CWBC offers even more than that.

Retiring president Mrs. Jack Laurie was presented with a compact by Miss Johansen and thanks were also extended to Mrs. Mary Turner for her untiring efforts for the club during the year.

Prior to the dinner which marked the installation ceremonies Mrs. Laurie initiated four new club members, Mrs. Clare Cordingly, Mrs. Jack Burgess, Mrs. Phyllis Taft and Mrs. Harold Marshall. Corsages were presented to Mrs. Sauer and Mrs. Laurie. Mrs. Bolton and Mrs. van Ireland received birthday corsages. Members also gave Mrs. Bolton two totem pole candles for her work during the year.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. M. McLeod, who received a compact donated by George Cook and Mrs. Taft won a mother of pearl compact donated by Mrs. Laurie. Regular prizes were won by Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Georgeson.

The installation rites were concluded by the singing of both the Canadian and American national anthems.

Badminton Dance Proves Success

A most successful hard-time dance was held in the Auditorium of the Prince Rupert Civic Centre last Friday night by the Civic Centre Badminton Club with 400 persons attending.

In keeping with the hard time motif costumes were hilarious and appropriate with prizes for the best costumes going to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Aston, 792 Alfred Street, who were gowned solely in cardboard barrels. Prizes received were a cup and saucer and a gift of $5, donated by William F. Stone.

Door prize, a table lamp, went to Ewald Verwold, 216 Fourth Avenue East. Music was provided by the Hartley Bay Five and refreshments of hot dogs and apple jack were served throughout the evening.
