IN MEMORIAM

HILL—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Victor Dell, who passed away November 22, 1953.

His thoughts were all so full of us,
He never could forget,
And so we think that where he is
He must be watching yet.
His angels keep their watch up there
Those God just let him know,
That we down here do not forget,
We love and miss him so.
Forever in our hearts,
Iris, Murray and Mum. (1t)

HAYES — In memory of Vere Norman Grant, who passed away November 21, 1953.

A loving voice said, 'Come'."

Gap Closed On Dynamiters

By The Canadian Press

The tight race in the Western International Hockey League became tighter during the weekend as Spokane Flyers and Nelson Maple Leafs closed the gap on the league-leading Kimberley Dynamiters.

In the other interior B.C. senior amateur loop, Kamloops Elks vaulted into second place in the Okanagan Senior league after defeating Kelowna Packers 5-3 Saturday night. The loss dropped Kelowna into third, one point behind the pace-setting Penticton V's.

In the other OSHL game Saturday night, the tail-end Vernon Canadians upset the powerful V's 5-1 to draw within one point of third spot in the standings.

In WIHL action at Spokane, the cellar-dwelling Trail Smoke Eaters came up with their best road game of the season but still lost as the Flyers run their home win-streak to five with a 4-2 decision.

The victory, coupled with Kimberley's 11-1 drubbing in Nelson, moved Spokane to within one point of the Dynamiters. Nelson is one point back in third spot.

"HANDICAPPED OSCARS" have been awarded to two seriously handicapped young people for outstanding performances in a new dramatic documentary motion picture film, "Three To Make Ready," which recently had its premiere at the New York Academy of Sciences before an audience of rehabilitation authorities and members of the professional and general press. Six-year-old Joseph Mastrovito (left), paralysis victim, and Dorothy Donnelly (right), teen-age cerebral palsy patient, both of New York, are shown as they received the awards from Bruce Barton, president of the Institute for the Crippled and Disabled, where the film was made.

Remember when..

The National Hockey League was organized at a meeting in Montreal 37 years ago today and Frank Calder was elected president and secretary - treasurer. Teams that first season were Montreal Canadiens, Montreal Wanderers, Ottawa Senators and Toronto Arenas. Toronto won the Stanley Cup with Dick Carroll as coach and Charlie Querrie as manager.
