Rebekah Lodge/ welcomes guests

Mrs. Pearl Betts of Penticton, president of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia, was welcomed as a special guest at a recent meeting of the Centennial Rebekah Lodge No. 40, held at the Valhalla Hall.

Mrs. Harry Quick, recently ap- | ' pointed district deputy president, introduced Mrs. Betts and told the meeting that she was in the city in the course of a northern tour.

Other guests introduced were Mrs. Hazel Van Buren, of Vancouver, vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly, and Mrs. M. J. J. Strathern of Hazelton.

Mrs. Van Buren presented Miss Alice Paulson, noble grand, with a certificate to the "100 per cent Club." This award was earned by the local lodge for their generous contribution to the Eye Bank and Visual Re- 💆 search Foundation, Mrs. Van
