Rupert Salvation Army Head Assumes Duties At Citadel

Arriving in Prince Rupert by car last evening were Captain and Mrs. Stanley Armstrong and two-year-old son Gordon from Swift Current, Saskatchewan.

Captain Armstrong, six years an officer with the Salvation Army, is the newly appointed officer in charge of the local corps. He relieves Senior Captain Cyril Frayn, who recently left the city with his family, for his new posting in Esquimalt, B.C.

Born and educated in Winnipeg, Captain Armstrong began his career with the Salvation Army in 1948 when he received his training in Toronto.

His first appointment was in Shaunavon, Saskatchewan, from there he went to Swift Current where he was in charge of the Salvation Army Citadel for four and a half years.

It is the first time that either Captain or Mrs. Armstrong, also from Winnipeg, have been further west than Saskatchewan.

"This certainly is a fascinating country" the Captain said today. Although greatly different from other parts of Canada he has lived in, he said he felt at home already.
