Mineral Search Underway In Northwest

VANCOUVER (CP)—Backed by the federal government, one of Canada's largest searches for minerals is in full swing in the northwest corner of British Columbia.

The geological survey, known as Operation Stikine, is using two helicopters and 51 men to map 25,000 square miles of almost unexplored territory this season.

The area to be surveyed is bounded by the Yukon border and the Alaska highway in the north and east, and the Alaska panhandle to the west.

HOP MOUNTAINS

The survey party will first concentrate on the Stikine plateau, just north of which was found the big Cassiar asbestos field.

This is believed the first time that helicopters have been used extensively in mountain areas by the federal department of mines and technical surveys.

In charge of the party is Fred Roots of Vancouver, 33-year-old graduate of the University of British Columbia and Princeton who once set a record for winter sledging in the Antarctic. He set the mark in the 1949-52 Norwegian-Swedish-British expedition.

With Dr. Roots on the B.C. survey is L. H. Green, son of Howard Green, Progressive Conservative MP for Vancouver Quadra; J. A. Rodick, H. Gabelelse, R. L. Christie and W. D. McCartney.

PRESIDENT RESIGNS

The Sports Editor,
The Daily News.

Sunday night at 5 p.m. I was told about the softball meeting for 8 p.m. that night by Miss Pearl Woon, secretary of the association. Due to a previous engagement I could not attend, so called a meeting for Monday night after the softball game at which time I would prove my stand with witnesses and written statements.

As president of the Prince Rupert Softball Association I have this right. I was completely ignored as no meeting was called. I think that was pretty poor showing for the executive as anyone has the right to stand before the Association and be heard.

In this letter, I shall prove that Ron Yuen and I and the Canfisco softball team organized softball in Prince Rupert so that we could play on our only days off—the weekends.

I would like to ask the people of Prince Rupert first who wanted to play softball so badly that it took them three years of time and effort to finally play? Myself, Ron Yuen and the Canfisco team.

In 1952 weorganized a team at Oceanside and played a couple of challenge games with Atlin Fisheries on Sundays. Ken Warren at Atlin and the oldtimers there remember that.

In 1952 we organized a team team challenged Atlin Fisheries quite a few times as well as Port Edward, Booth School and a couple of pick-up teams. All games were played on Sundays. For proof anyone can look it up in the files of The Daily News.

In 1955, Ron Yuen and I with John Palahicky of the Electricians team went to see RCMP and firemen representatives and invited them to form a team. The league, consisting of seven teams finally got underway with four fishing company teams in the league.

Proof that the fishing company teams played only on Saturdays, Sundays or Mondays is shown in a schedule printed in The Daily News, Friday, July 8 1955. If further proof is needed, who made out the schedule at that time. It was Fred Pachal, vice-president of the '55 association who is now in Victoria and Dick Wallin, who is still in Prince Rupert and who assisted Fred in forming the schedule.

In 1956, at one of our meetings, Atlin Fisheries team manager Alec Pihera stated his team could not play during the week after May 22 and I stated that Canfisco could not play during the week after June 25 and it was agreed to by the association. I stressed that point many times. Why it wasn't put in the minutes of the meetings, we can only ask Miss Pearl Moon, secretary. Len Harrington, vice-president, formed the schedule this season with those instructions.

I answered one of Mr. Louis Boltong's statements, spokesman for Local 708, and now I'll answer the other one.

This is our lineup of players for Oceanside cannery to prove Mr. Boltong's whole statement is false beyond a doubt.

Mike Kutzak, retort operator; Ron Yuen, assistant warehouseman; Dick Nickerson, tallyman; Clare Kellough, winchman; Cecil Wing, book-keeper; Jack Antone, jeep driver; Rocky Mah jeep driver; Bob Allaire, packing room; Pat Fagan, on board seiner Flora H; Tom Sedgwick, on holidays in Mexico; Art Helin, vocational school, Vancouver; Chris Eirickson, moved east.

The only ones who could play are Darrell Young, Al Adams, Ben Wagner, Archie Hodgkinson.

In view of the fact that a choice few in the association will not let me be heard when I, as president, call a meeting. I am going to do what they want me to do . . . . .

Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball Association . . . . . you have my resignation.

MIKE KUTZAK,
Prince Rupert.
