Prince Rupert Youngsters Win 2 of 3 at Smithers

A boys' team sponsored by the Prince Rupert Elks Lodge 342 for a trip to Smithers during the out of three games in the boys' baseball tournament there, Harley Lewis of the Elks reported this morning.

The local youngsters dropped the first game 17-7 Sunday but bounced back Monday to take a double header 7-5 and 13-2 at the Bulkley Valley Fair Grounds.

Bruce Kerr started in the first game but was replaced by Hugh MacKenzie in the fifth, Murray Wells started for the locals in the second game but was replaced by Jerry Dominato in the third. Kerr went the distance in the third game, holding the host team to three hits including a first-inning home run. Twelve boys made the trip, accompanied by Mr. Lewis and William R. Smith of the Prince Rupert Elks Lodge.

Unbelieving Fans Watch 10-0 Shutout

By the Canadian Press

Vancouver baseball fans couldn't have expected what they saw at Capilano stadium Wednesday night but the surprise sent them home happy.

The Vancouver Mounties registered their first shutout of the Pacific Coast League baseball season behind the five-hit pitching of Jim McDonald and Al Curtis. They defeated Seattle Rainiers 10-0 to even their five-game series at two wins each.

In the other three games up and down the west coast Sacramento came back from seven defeats to smear San Francisco Seals 10-3 in the Solons city. At Los Angeles George Freese singled home Steve Bilko with two down in the ninth to give the Angels a 10-9 win over San Diego.

At Portland Eddie Basinski slammed a home run with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth to give the Beavers a thrilling 6-5 victory over Hollywood Stars at Portland.

Curlers Holding Vital Meet Tonight

Reports and recommendations for the operation of the Prince Rupert Curling Club will be made tonight at the annual meeting of curlers at the Civic Centre at 8 o'clock, Joe Scott, chairman of the special rink expansion committee announced this morning.

Mr. Scott said that a report on the recent canvass of club members to raise funds to expand rink facilities at Seal Cove would be among the chief topics up for discussion.

He urged all club members to attend the meeting as recommendations by the rink committee "would affect the whole operation of the club next year."

Tentative plans call for expansion of present three-sheet ice surface to six sheets on the same site as the present rink. Cost of the proposed project would be approximately $80,000, which canvassers have been attempting to raise since the special rink committee was appointed in March of this year.

Also on the agenda for tonight's meeting will be the annual election of officers, while a film of the 1956 Bonspiel at Moncton, New Brunswick will be shown.

The hotelmen will start Gord Cameron while G&A will pin its faith on Ian Dunbar.

Umpires for the game will be Andy Letourneau, Steve Mintenko and Benny Windle.

Sea Kings Halt Win Streak For Storemen

Shop Easy's win streak came to an end last night at three when Sea Kings broke out in two big innings to chalk up a 13-7 victory in a Prince Rupert Little League fixture at Algoma park.

Bobby Mintenko for Shop-Easy and Franklyn Van Pykstra for Sea Kings allowed only two runs and four hits in three complete innings. However, in the fourth Mintenko weakened and Sea Kings drove in six runs on five hits.

Shop Easy rallied in the fifth on home runs by Hugh MacKenzie and Don Love to get within one run of tying the score. Love replaced Mintenko on the mound for the storemen but Doug Kerr's Sea Kings brought in another five runs in the fifth, while Shop-Easy were held scoreless in the sixth.
