MANGER SCENE in front of the First United Church on Sixth Avenue West has been erected by the Hi-C Club (High Christian Service youth group), which is led by Miss Wilma Sharpe. The scene is particularly striking at night when it is flood-lit. Chimes and Christmas carols are played from a loudspeaker to make this tableau thought-provoking and most timely.

> t is surprising how many folk listen to "Rupert Calling" on their radios for when the Noakes lost their Labrador dog, Nigger, and word was broadcast to ask anyone seeing him to report it, it seems that almost everyone heard of it. Unfortunately it has brought no returns and he has disappeared now for three nights. He does not wander away from home and yet when he was let out of the house in the evening he simply didn't come back. This is a mystery which we may never solve.

On Thursday night the school children held their Christmas Concert in the hall and it was a real success. The hall had been beautifully decorated with evergreen boughs and there was a huge tree blazing with lights. Santa Claus put on a show all by himself with his dancing and 4821 or 2575. laughing and joking. With each gift was a bag of nuts and candy for every youngster, and we hay until spring. Most folk leave needed 77 bags for each school pupil and pre-school child, for we had not realized that there were that many children in our community. After Santa had capered his way out of the hall the benches were pushed to the walls and refreshments were
