PRESENT BRIEF

VICTORIA (CP) — Briefs supporting the provincial government's complaint that B.C. is discriminated against unjustly by existing and proposed freight rates will be presented to the board of transport commissioners at a hearing in Vancouver today. An increase of 10 per cent on grain products was to have gone into effect January 1 but it was postponed until the hearing in Vancouver. C. W. Brazier, government counsel, seeks a reduction on present rates, which his brief says discriminate against the province.

AMERICAN GIRL HONORED IN FESTIVAL — Chosen as carnival princess in a Wiesbaden, Germany, festival, 26-year-old Mary L. Wolters of St. Paul, Minn., looks every inch a queen as she touches glasses in a graceful toast with her prince. The Faschingprincess, reception hostess of the American Special Services Club at Htoescht, was enthroned with the Faschingprince, a local man, during the winter festival, held annually as a sort of Mardi Gras in West German towns along the Rhine River.

Canada Hasn't Got Officers For Palestine Police Force

OTTAWA (CP) — It would be practically impossible for Canada alone to supply the type of police force sought for Palestine, informants say.

Enlargement of the United Nations Truce Supervisory Organization in Palestine would require a good many staff officers and Canada simply hasn't got them to spare.

Posting of Canadian staff officers to the Indochina Truce Commission in 1954 cut big gaps in the army establishment. The army said at the time it could ill afford the loss—some 150 men.

But a Palestine force would require hundreds of men. Trained, experienced officers are needed for such a job, not an ordinary army battalion or the like.

Prime Minister St. Laurent told the Commons Monday that the government is giving no consideration to sending a 500-man force to Palestine.

GUIDED BY BURNS

He was questioned about published reports to this effect or that the subject would come up during Prime Minister Eden's current visit here. John Diefenbaker, (PC-Prince Albert), the questioner, mentioned the possibility of transferring some Canadian troops now in West Germany.

"No," Mr. St. Laurent said, "there has been no request to Canada for a force of that character, and naturally no consideration has been given in view of the fact that no such request has been made."

Mollet Strives To Bring Peace To Algerians

ALGERIS (AP)—France's Premier Guy Mollet made new bids today for peace in Algeria after suffering a stinging defeat at the hands of indignant French colonists.

Within two hours after Mollet's arrival from Paris Monday, an angry mob had forced him to accept the resignation of Gen. Georges Catroux from the cabinet post the premier created a week ago as a step toward ending 15 months of bloody terrorism in this North African area, which is part of metropolitan France.

The premier scheduled day-long conferences today in his effort to reconcile Algerian nationalist demands for freedom with French residents' opposition to any self-government for the Moslem natives.

Monday night a crowd of about 1,500 demonstrators, mostly students, attempted to enter the summer palace where Mollet is staying. Police used tear gas to force the rioters back.

MEETS VETERANS

Nationalist groups took no part in the demonstrations greeting the premier. There had been considerable fear that the colonists' outburst would touch off counter-violence from the rebels, but this did not materialize.

One of Mollet's first meetings today was with representatives of war veterans' groups. They have spearheaded the opposition to easing French control, forming a militant "committee to protect the public" to push their campaign.

Mollet accepted the resignation of Catroux—who was to have gone to Algiers Friday to take up his post—in a telephone exchange with Paris.

GOING UP

VANCOUVER (CP) — Cost of Vancouver's proposed auditorium now is estimated at $4,000,000, or $1,250,000 more than the money by-law that was approved by ratepayers two years ago.

Ex-Communist Said Kidnapped

BERLIN (Reuters) — East German secret service men have kidnapped a former prominent Communist who fled to the West after quarrels with party leaders, West Berlin police said Monday.

They believe Robert Dialek was drugged, then kidnapped from an apartment in the British sector of Berlin.

Before escaping in 1953 Dialek was a leader of the East German Communist youth movement and chief of the political culture department of the former East German interior administration with the rank of inspector-general.

After differences with East German leaders, he escaped and worked for the BBC on broadcasts aimed at East Germany.

Son Unaware Father Died While Phoning

SYDNEY, Australia (CP) — A youth who spoke to his parents 12,000 miles away in England by telephone rang off without knowing his father had died during the call.

As the youth's father collapsed his mother seized the phone. She continued to chat to her son until his three-minute call expired.

The youth, Peter Dixon, 20 of Perth, booked the call because he knew his father, John Dixon of Leeds, was ill.

"I did not know Dad had died until I received a cable from my mother the next day," he said.

SOLDIER SENTENCED

FORT MEADE, Md. (AP) — A military court Monday sentenced Sgt. William E. Banghart, 27, of Muncy, Pa., to 15 years at hard labor for collaborating with the enemy while he was a prisoner-of-war in Korea. Banghart also was sentenced to be dishonorably discharged and to suffer forfeiture of all pay allowances.
