Ousted Priest Leaves Russia For Finland

MOSCOW (AP)—Rev. Georges Bissonnette, American Roman Catholic priest expelled by the Soviet Union, left Moscow today by plane.

Hundreds of foreigners stationed in the Russian capital waved a tearful farewell as the plane took off from Vnukova airport.

The 33-year-old priest headed for Helsinki, Finland, where he will await further orders from clerical authorities. He said he expects to be in the Finnish capital for two or three weeks.

Ambassadors from the United States, Britain, France and Canada were among the throng which jammed the waiting room of the airport. Later they streamed onto the runway, accompanying the priest to the plane.

Soviet police cancelled Father Bissonnette's visa Wednesday without giving a reason and ordered him to leave the Soviet Union.

ONLY PASSENGER

The priest was the only passenger aboard the twin-engined Soviet airliner as it took off this cold, windy morning. Chatting cheerily with his well-wishers, Father Bissonnette had no comment on the expulsion order.
