Milwaukee Back in Lead

Burdette Blanks Cinncinati Reds

By The Associated Press

Milwaukee Braves may be sitting in the driver's seat in the game of musical chairs the National League is staging in the guise of a pennant race.

Braves, who should stand to benefit from a 19-game home stand opening today, slammed back into first place Tuesday as Lew Burdette laughed off Cincinnati's robust Redlegs with a five-hitter for a 7-0 decision. It gave Milwaukee a split of the two-game set at Cincy while ousting Redlegs from their less-than-24-hour stay in the lead and re-established Braves' five-percentage-point edge.

The only thing that doesn't make Milwaukee's home stand a sure-fire bet for bolstering that slim lead is the fact Braves won only five of 15 in their last stay at County Stadium — a slump that dumped them from first.

They left home under manager Charlie Grimm. Now they're back from a 14-7 road tour under manager Fred Haney.

BURDETTE'S EIGHTH

In the only other National League games, Chicago Cubs handed fourth-place St. Louis its 14th defeat in 20 games, 7-4, and Pittsburgh beat Philadelphia 6-5 on a two-run pinch homer by Bob Skinner in the ninth after Phils had wrapped up a 7-2 victory in the completion of a May 13 suspended game.

A pinch single by Maury McDermott with the bases loaded in the 12th inning brought New York Yankees a 4-3 decision over Baltimore and kept their American League lead at 3½ games. Second-place Chicago belted Detroit 6-0. Cleveland smacked Kansas City 9-3 and Washington trimmed Boston 6-5 in 11 innings as Jim Lemon delivered his fourth hit of the game—a triple.

Burdette walked only one and struck out two while gaining his eighth victory, becoming the second pitcher to whitewash the homer-happy Redlegs. Teammate Warren Spahn did it 15-0 May 13.

Rain thrice interrupted the game, which Braves iced in the fifth with three runs—two on Johnny Logan's homer. All-star pitcher Joe Nuxhall was the victim for a 5-8 record.

Angels Nudge Idle Rainiers

By The Canadian Press

It was a day for some high scoring in the Pacific Coast League Tuesday.

Los Angeles Angels whacked San Diego Padres 13-3 while Portland Beavers were walloping Hollywood Stars 14-?. And just to make an exception to a one - night rule, Sacramento Solons and San Francisco Seals traded a total of only five hits as the Solons eked out a 1-0 victory.

Los Angeles crept to within one game of the idle, league-leading Seattle Rainiers. Hollywood's loss left the Stars 6½ games back of the Angels and 2½ games up on Sacramento and Portland.

The league has a full schedule today. San Diego visits Los Angeles, San Francisco is at Sacramento, Vancouver goes to Seattle and Hollywood plays in Portland.

Terrace Golfers Retain Kitimat Inter-City Title

Led by the rock-steady playing of Team Captain Mel Peekvout, who turned in the day's low aggregate of 68, the Terrace golf team retained the Kitimat Inter-city Trophy for a second year Sunday when they won out over three other teams at Thornhill Golf Club, Terrace.

Team aggregate for the Terrace squad was 654, Smithers followed with 663, while Kitimat grossed 720 and Prince Rupert trailed with 847.

Names and scores of the other members of the Terrace team are as follows: Parker Mills 75; Gordon Neff 76; Larry Pridden 82; Jack Collier 85; Tommy Marsland 87; Horace Vance 87; and Johnny Foster 94.

For Smithers: Gordie Heatherington 77; Arnold Rennison 79; Jimmy Andrew 80; Tommy Jones 80; Vern Alefounder 84; Carl Spicer 85; Mike O'Neill 87; Jim Goodacre 919.

For Kitimat: Ed Dede 76; Bill Moore 77; Ray Little 78; Stan Rough 85; J. Jackson (sub) 94; Hal Windt (sub) 99; Reg Snow 103; Rene Boucher 108.

Players for Prince Rupert, for whom no scores are available, were Ernie Kruelzky, Claude Butt (sub), Ev. Shier, Bill Noble, Bill Houle, George Kearley, Cliff Ham and T. H. Wilford.

The Inter-city Handicap Event for medalist honors was won by Bob Grabler with runner-up Fred Groome.

Class A Event was won by Al Davis, with Dud Little and George Martin tying for second-place honors.

Class B Event was won by Claude Dale with Garry Reum second.

Canfisco Down Army, Navy In Easy 14-2 Victory

Canfisco teed off early in a Prince Rupert Senior Men's Softball league game last night to trounce Army and Navy 14-2 at Gyro Park.

Behind the pitching of Jimmy Stewart and Ron Der the Oceanside squad chalked up one run in the second and three in the third innings and then exploded for a nine-run outburst in the fourth after Army and Navy's starter Legnerrier gave up four hits, walked three men and his teammates committed four errors. One of the hits was a home run by Mike Kulzak with two men aboard.

The armed services' only runs came in the fourth and sixth innings.

Canfisco added one more run in the sixth frame when Dick Nickerson hit safely, got around to third on passed balls and stole home.

Leggett relievd for Army and Navy in the top of the fifth.

Tonight will see RCMP play Army and Navy.

Line Score:

Sea Kings Trounce Kinsmen

A big second inning for Doug Walker's Sea Kings spelled defeat for the Kinsmen last night in a scheduled Little League baseball fixture at Algoma Park.

During the hectic second stanza the Sea Kings rapped in 10 of their 15 runs—Final score was 15-3.

Don Cameron's Kinsmen used Billy Alexander on the mound while Ricky Newsom went the distance for Sea Kings.

Defensive lapses in the field by the service club squad undermined the good work of their hurler Alexander.

Tonight at Algoma Park, Sea Kings take on North Stars.

Thames Club Edges Oarsmen From Ontario

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England (AP)—The Brockville, Ontario, rowing club was eliminated from the Royal Henley regatta's Thames cup race today by one of England's strongest boating clubs, the Thames Rowing Club.

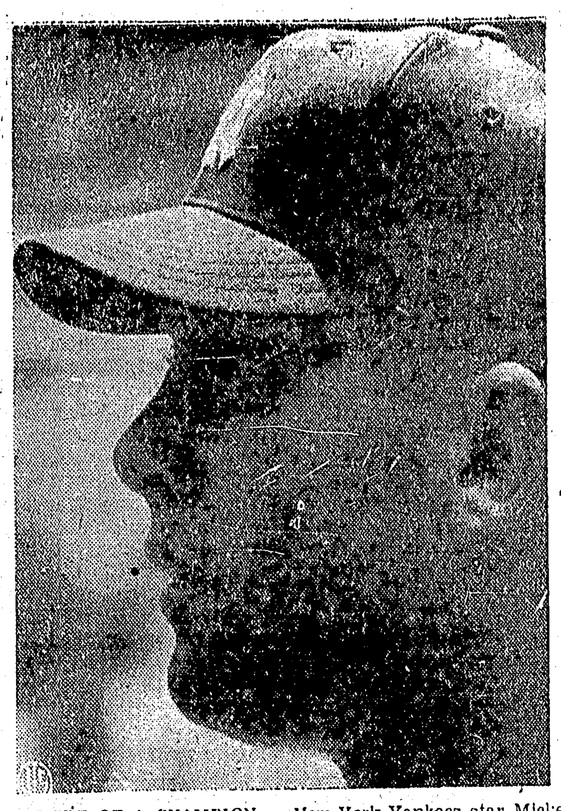
The husky Canadian crew put up a strong fight in the opening heat of the Thames Challenge Cup competition for lightweight eights but the Thames Club B team finished two-thirds of a length ahead.

In winning, the Thames Club scored the fastest time of the day with seven minutes 22 seconds for the one mile, 550-yard course.

Both crews gave good performances with the Thames Club showing a little better form. A slight headwind sweeping over the river favored the heavier Englishmen who outweighed the Canadians about seven pounds a man.

Before the race Canadian coach Ralph Gifford said his team, which used a borrowed boat was "in top shape."

The team didn't bring its own boat because it will need it for the Canadian Henley and Olympic trials at Port Dalhousie, Ont., July 24 and wouldn't have time to ship it back to Canada.



PROFILE OF A CHAMPION — New York Yankees star Mickey Mantle looks ahead to possibly a record-breaking season as the Boy Terror of the Plains is in hot pursuit of the record of 60 home runs set by the immortal Babe Ruth. Mickey's magic with the bat has resulted in the heavier attendance at Yankee games and has given the club a stellar attraction personality for the first time since the heyday of Joe DiMaggio.

Last Night's Fights

STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)— Eddie Chavez, 141½, San Jose, outpointed Manuel Kid Castro, 141, Stockton, (10).

PHOENIX, Arizona (AP)— Cisco Andrade, 135, Compton, Calif. knocked out Luke Sandoval, 133, Los Angeles, (3).
