SPORTS ROUND-UP

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP) — If commissioner Ford Frick's fact finding committee really wants to know why fans are staying away from the ball parks in increasing numbers, let its members merely sit on the hard seats through a couple of typical three-hour games such as are being perpetrated these days.

The national game is becoming badly over-managed by a new school of pilots whose idea of brilliant strategy is to change pitchers.

There was a time when we delighted in taking a British visitor out to one of the local parks and letting him see first hand how much faster and more action-filled baseball was than his native cricket. Now it is only embarrassing. A good cricket batsman might roll up 100 or more runs before they scrag him, but at least he sticks at his task.

EIGHT PITCHERS

Take the most recent horrible example, in which eight St. Louis Cardinal pitchers paraded at Ebbets Field over a period of two hours and 55 minutes while the Dodgers were hacking out a 12-5 victory. The exhibition proved only that Harry Walker, the Cards' new manager, can haul in more throwers than could his predecessor, Eddie Stanky.

Figuring that it takes a minimum of five minutes to get a new pitcher into action, Walker used up 35 minutes demonstrating his authority. Actually, it seemed twice that long.

Walker used four flingers the next day and then climaxed his maiden week's great performance by trotting out a total of 10 in last Sunday's doubleheader.

Remember when..

Gallant Fox, with Earle Sande in the saddle, was an easy winner of the Kentucky Derby 25 years ago. The three-year-old colt owned by William Woodward won the "triple crown" of the American turf that year—the Belmont Stakes, Preakness and Kentucky Derby—for total winnings of $308,275, a record that stood until Assault rolled up $424,195 in 1946. Citation in 1948 boosted it to $709,470.

All Stars Lead Spring Bowlers

All Stars took three points off Stack Ups Thursday night to continue to lead A league of the Spring Bowling League with 14 points, two up on Northwest Construction and Woodbutchers who are tied for second place.

In B League, Good Neighbors took three points off Aces to move into a tie for first place with King Pinners, who managed a split with RCMP to post a 14 point total.

Third spot in A loop is tied also, with Stack Ups and Savoy holding 11 points while Daily News and Headpinners show a 12-point total for B loop's second place.

In A league, women's high single was taken by Agnes Pierce of Weddbutchers for he 340 game, while Bertha Damaar of Stack-Ups posted a three game total of 748 for women's high triple.

Jack Sedzwick of Stack-Ups, with a 331 score, took men's high single and men's high triple went to Ben Wagner of All Stars for his 704 three-game total.

B League women's honors went to Doreen Deagle of Headpinners who took high single and three on scores of 270 and 699. Eric Christenson of Aces posted a 278 score for men's high single and Steve Dripska of Headpinners got men's high three for his 734 three-game total.

Results:

A League—All Stars 3, Stack Ups 1; Vancouver Sun 3, Savoy 1; NW Construction 2, Thistles 2; Woodbutchers 4, La Condola 0.

B League—Headpinners 3, Canfisco 1; Kingpinners 2, RCMP 2; Good Neighbors 3, Aces 1; Daily News 4, Checker Cabs 0.

Standings:

A League—All Stars 11, NW Construction 12, Woodbutchers 12; Stack Ups 11, Savoy 11, Vancouver Sun 9, Thistles 6, La Condola 5.

B League—King Pinners 14, Good Neighbors 14, Headpinners 12, Daily News 12, Canfisco 9, Aces 7, RCMP 6, Checker Cabs 6.

Bonspiel Set For "Cup" Week

VANCOUVER (CP) — A $10,000 bonspiel sponsored by three Vancouver area curling clubs, will be held here Nov. 20-25.

The first annual Totem bonspiel is being held during the week of the Grey Cup football game, and is expected to draw more hundreds to the city for the week of festivities.

More than 200 rinks, each paying a $50 entrance fee, are expected from across Canada.

Calgary alone has guaranteed 25 rinks, and Walt Gully of that city has been appointed drawmaster.

Each of the three events will have a $2,000 prize.

James Garfield, U.S. president assassinated in 1881, was a canal bargeman in his youth.
