NEW HAZELTON BALL GROUNDS IN SHAPE

Boys Requested to Turn Out and Practice for the Big Opening Game.

The new baseball grounds are now completed and in excellent shape for the practice games. All last week and the first half of this week the ball boys had two and three teams and half a dozen men at work on the grounds and they have accomplished wonders. As a matter of fact the grounds are in as good shape as any new grounds could be, and they are a credit to the town.
