Booth Students Present Operetta Mikado Tonight

Nearly 650 high school and elementary school students roared their approval and gave an outstanding ovation yesterday afternoon when the curtain fell on a matinee performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado" presented by the Booth Memorial High school Glee Club.

The successful matinee bodes well for tonight's performance of the gay operetta, in the school auditorium, Jack Evans, promotion manager said today.

There were few hitches yesterday afternoon and the main soloists and chorus, together with the high school orchestra "did an excellent job," Mr. Evans said.

Gilbert and Sullivan's masterpiece, designed to chide the formal Japanese way of life at the turn of the century, will be presented tonight in the full colorful manner of the Doyle-Carte original. Students have been working for nearly two months on costumes and sets, in an effort to reproduce the authentic atmosphere necessary for such a major undertaking.

The story of the Mikado's son, the three little maids, and the pseudo-tragedy of loves lost and re-won, is given added impetus by the enthusiasm which the high school students have injected into their roles.

Don Martinson takes the part of the Emperor, or Mikado; with Ken McKinnon in the role of Nanky Poo, his son. Nanky Poo's sweetheart Yum Yum is portrayed by Linda Nickerson and her two school chums, Petti Sing and Peep Bo are taken by Deanna Dougherty and Margaret Watts.

The spritely Ko-Ko is played by Tommy Moorehouse while Nanky Poo's elderly betrothed Katisha is played by Julie Prockter. Bruce Forward is Poo Bah, the Chancellor of the Titti Poo exchequer and Roy Sieber takes the part of Pish Tush.

The operetta is directed by Booth Memorial teaching staff member Gordon Griffin.

Curtain time is 8 p.m.
