Cowboy Town For Children In White Rock

WHITE ROCK, B.C. (CP)—There is still one wild west, genuine cowboy town left in British Columbia. And it is all for children.

In this community about 30 miles south of Vancouver, there is a miniature cowboy town. It has 20 Shetland ponies, hordes of white rabbits, pigs, pigeons, chuck wagons, a corral and covers 20 acres.

This children's paradise is owned and operated by 28-year-old Dick Gardiner, a graduate in agriculture and former high school teacher.

The ranch is for boys and girls between seven and 12 years of age.

Mr. Gardiner says he has just started. His next project is a plan to produce miniature cattle by crossing small Jerseys with even smaller Herefords.

And then, Mr. Gardiner says, is the construction of a children's size Old West town, with a railroad station and tiny trains.

This is the second year the ranch has been in operation, and the owner says he is building bunkhouses in anticipation of this year's rush of guests.

MIDGET MERMAID—Getting an early start in the swim of things, six-week-old Dana Lynn Holbrook of Pico, Calif., takes a fast turn around the pool for the cameras on an NBC television show. The midget mermaid found the water just fine and even gurgled her appreciation for the microphone.

Grimm Out as Braves' Manager Despite Paydirt Lineup Switch

By The Associated Press

Charlie Grimm's last official act as manager of Milwaukee was to announce Joe Adcock would play both games at Brooklyn Sunday. It was one of the best moves Grimm ever made—for the new manager, Fred Haney.

Before Grimm knew he was going to resign as boss of Braves he told the players he was taking Adcock off the bench and starting him at first base as a reward for his pinch home-run in Saturday's game. Before the night was over, Grimm was out and Haney was in.

Adcock hit three home runs for Milwaukee Sunday, one of them the first ever hit over the left field stands at Ebbets Field, as Braves swept the doubleheader 5-4 and 3-1.

When the day's heavy shooting was over, Braves had turned the crank on the five-team National League race and rested only two games off the pace.

PIRATES LEAD BY HALF

Despite a double defeat at the hands of St. Louis Pittsburgh Pirates still held the lead by half a game. Cards dumped the Pirates 3-1 on Stan Musial's two-run homer and 8-3 on homers by Hank Sauer and Bob del Greco.

Either Cincinnati or Brooklyn could have sneaked into the lead by winning a pair. Dodgers dropped two and Redlegs had to settle for a split with New York. After successive homers by Willie Mays and Bill White gave Giants the opener 7-6, Joe Nuxhall shut out New York with two singles for a 1-0 verdict for Redlegs.

Robin Roberts ended his personal losing streak by pitching Phillies to his first victory since May 24 with a seven-hitter 7-1, but Chicago Cubs bounced back to win the second 7-4 on Sam Jones' six-hitter.

Rookie Norm Siebern and Yogi Berra ripped into Early Wynn for a pair of two-run homers in the first inning as New York Yankees drubbed Cleveland 9-4 in the American League. The defeat dropped Indians into fourth place, eight games behind the leaders.

Chicago pounded Washington for 20 hits and a 20-2 romp in the opener and then settled back to absorb a 10-4 beating in the second game. The results left White Sox 5½ games back of Yanks.

Frank Sullivan beat Detroit for the 10th straight time with the help of a 19-hit Boston attack in a 13-2 romp. Baltimore's Bob Nieman, a .435 hitting terror when he sees Kansas City pitching, hit a three-run homer with the score tied in the eighth inning as Orioles whipped As 7-2.

In the National League Saturday Pittsburgh shut out St. Louis 2-0. The game was called after seven innings because of rain.

Brooklyn beat Milwaukee 3-2.

Cincinnati beat New York Giants 3-1. Chicago at Philadelphia was rained out.

In the American, Chicago defeated Washington 7-0. Boston beat Detroit 3-5. New York won 3-1 over Cleveland and Baltimore took a 6-2 win over Kansas City.
