Doctors, government settle medicare dispute

chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the told a press conference that agreement had been signed a righten with the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at Crashes, burns in emergence that agreement had been signed a righten with the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at Crashes, burns in emergence that agreement had been signed a righten with the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at Crashes, burns in emergence that agreement had been signed a righten with the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at Crashes, burns in emergence that the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at Crashes, burns in emergence that the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at Crashes, burns in emergence that the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the Saskat-Chewan medical care dispute was announced today at the control of the cont

an agreement had been signed a ciation with the government's few minutes before by the Sas- medical care plan katchewan College of Physicians and Surgeons and the CCF gov-approved by both sides.

At the same time the college is asking doctors who withdrew practice immediately.

as speedily as possible.

had to find a way of combining outlined in the new agreement scheme. achieves this objective."

Provision has been made in the or outside the act. amending legislation for voluntary non-profit health insurance view, he can: agencies to participate in asso- 1 Choose a doctor who is en-

rejected

A 10-cent per hour across the may then choose a doctor who board pay increase for tender- has a service contract with the men and shoreworkers was of- agency. fered by the Prince Rupert Fish-3 If a patient doesn't enroll in ermen's Co-operative Association a voluntary health insurance ness agent of the United Fisher- working outside the act, the docmen and Allied Workers union.

than the conciliation board rec-set by the commission. ommendation but 15 cents lower than the union demand, was apparently rejected by the union Longtime resident

K. F. Harding, general mana-ger and secretary of the Co-op dies in Vancouver wrote the letter to Mr. Gordon A former longtime Prince Rup-something was wrong. on instruction of the board of ert resident, Charles Montague directors.

The letter stated that the di-Vancouver, died yesterday in side stand they operated two rectors believe "considerable time Vancouver at the age of 79. and expense for both the union | Mr. McIntyre had suffered a | and the association can be saved heart attack at home Saturday Union Suspends at this stage by not resorting to evening and died in the hospital a full negotiating session.

wages for a one-year agreement as a young man. He worked at without resorting to the "jockey- Anyox until the mines there closing" back and forth that might ed down and then he was enginlead us to this point in a regular eer on the CGS Alberni for for ; negotiating meeting.

employees concerned with an nine years ago. He was a memacross the board increase of 10 ber of Tyce Lodge No. 66 AF & cents per hour for all hourly AM. sponding adjustment for month- two sons, Gerald of Victoria, and member union. ly paid employees ($17.40)."

The letter stated that the of agreements, and should have Ottawa. been the decision of the conciliation board."

Two brothers from Sunnyside missing

Two brothers, Charles Willard Lincoln, 17, and Arthur Willard) Lincoln, 14, of Sunnyside cannery were reported missing to, Prince Rupert RCMP Saturday.

The two boys left home for a show at Prince Rupert and failed to return.

Charles is wonring a brown, shirt, brown and black checked, frousers, and no coat. Arthur is, wearing black trousors, a green) meket, and brown shoes.

Police had hopes that the boys) would turn up on their own) shortly

DRUGS LTD.

The college also undertook to guarantee that doctors will not The agreement calls for the discriminate in medical treatcalling of a special session of the ment against people who do not legislature to pass amendments belong to voluntary health

Saskatchewan doctors withdrew normal medical services normal services July 1 to resume when the government's compulsory medical care insurance plan was launched July 1.

Preparation of the legislation The government and doctors and calling for the session might resumed negotiations last Wedtake some days but formal state- nesday after the college said it ment of agreement said is hoped was withdrawing a demand that the government suspend the The statement said "we have Medical Care Insurance Act. The college at the same time publicly-supported universal cov- proposed that doctors be permiterage with the true essentials of ted to practise outside the act professional freedom. The gov- and that private voluntary ernment and the college hope health schemes be permitted to that the medical care scheme operate with the government

The agreement said doctors must be free to practise inside

From the patient's point of rolled with the Medical Care Insurance Commission for direct payment. The doctor will bill the commission or be otherwise paid by it and there will be no further WOMAN BELIEVED STRANGLED

12 The patient can enroll with a private health insurance aglency to which he will pay an en-| rolment fee and at his option a | further premium to insure for additional fringe benefits. He tor will bill the patient who in Josephine Marie MacDonald, 49, whose body was turn will be reimbursed up to 85 found by her husband early today. The offer, four cents higher per cent of the schedule of fees mat when he got the feeling that early Sunday morning.

"For this reason we are pre-Born in eastern Canada, Mr. pared to make a firm offer on McIntyre came to the west coast many years. Recently he had "We therefore offer a one-been an engineer at Miller Bay | year contract for all groups of Hospital. He moved south about

| Charles Montague of Prince Rup- | ert; two daughters, Mrs. H. L. ment if fellow anti-Communist ported missing from his boat the [1] (Katharine) Knox of Vancouver members will suport him. fer was made after "very careful and Mrs. D. J. (Jean) Gable of consideration" and was what the Chemainus; 18 grandchildren; directors feel was a "reasonble one brother, Oscar Nelson, and and just increase in our present one sister, Mrs. G. M. Davis of

> Funeral services will be held at Mount Pleasant Chapel at 301 1. | East Eleventh Street in Vancouver at 3 p.m. Wednesday, with Rev. Peter Kelly, DD officiating, his job.

of wife near Shames An 18-year-old deaf mute has been arrested by in a letter to A. L. Gordon, busi-scheme and chooses a doctor Terrace RCMP in connection with the death of Mrs.

Huband finds body

RCMP said the woman apparently was strangled. miles east of Prince Rupert. The woman's body was discovered by her husband Jack who Terrace District hospital at 12:30 returned home from work with the fisheries department at Kiti-

He found his wife lying on the McIntyre or 805 Lillooet Street, floor of their home at a road-

VANCOUVER (b) --- A Vancouver truck driver who was suspended for five year from the '| Civie Employees' Union outside | workers, said today the member-ship is indifferent to Communist Searching control of the union.

Renneth Foster says he was fought for Kenneth Foster says he was Mr. McIntyre is survived by against such control in the 1,600-

| ruptive manner within the un- | ion, making unauthorized state- Skeena River. ments to the press and slandering the union and its executives.

CARS CRASH - The Royal Canadian Mounted Police Port

Edward dotachment patrol car and a small foreign car collided at the intersection of McBride Street and Third Avenue about

0:15 p.m. Friday. About $300 damage was caused to the police afternoon.

Last police reports have it intense investigation, but no new leads were disclosed to late this was launched.

mo this morning was undergoing cents a pound, sold to Babcock. where he was a member of par-He vows to fight for reinstate-, a search for a man who was re-Charlene A at midnight last

Top Island at the mouth of the Mr. Peterson was born in Swe- partment of Transport, and was er, 25, of Haddon Heights union charges of acting in a dis- fallen off his boat just off Green evening.

The suspension won't affect was reported missing by his son Ferguson's Funeral Home is in yesterday's visit was not a for- "You could smell the bodies who was on the boat also.

miles from Shames about 77 Prince Rupert for the third time vesterday, but didn't flight 310, had originated in ment of salmon runs has caused The woman was rushed to the actually set foot in the city. Lt.-Gov. Pearkes arrived about Nanaimo to the water side of am Hawaii time Seturday. a.m. this morning, and was dead noon at the airport aboard an HMCS Saguenay. He boarded the Royal Canadian Navy vessel and

(centre) chats with Prince Rupert MLA William H. Murray (left)

and Mayor P. J. Lester moments after arriving at Prince Rupert airport on Digby Island yesterday. Lt.-Gov. Pearkes, Ltd.-Comm.

Saguenay and then left for visits to several northern towns.

Lieutenant governor

BC from Victoria.

able to visit here shortly.

arrives at airport

on arrival. Police were called to RCAF Dakota DC-3. He was met by local officials then left for visits to Stewart, the hospital at 1:35 and immediately made a patrol into and dignitaries and then taken Massett, Queen Charlotte City, The suspect was arrested by the RCMP patrol vessel PB Bella Bella, Ocean Falls and Port shortly after the investigation 82,500 pounds Two boats with a total of 82,-

500 pounds of halibut landed at 1 with 60,000 pounds including 31,- left the Canadian government earlier. 000 pounds of medium at 33.5 elevator where it had been berthcents a pound; 28,000 pounds of ed since Saturday. with 12,500 pounds of medium at $_{ m of}$ the mounted police. for large at 36.7 cents a pound his way north to the Yukon. and 8,000 pounds of chix at 17 The second visit was in 1951

Fisherman dies

den and has no known relatives, taken on a short tour of the new No trace of the man was re- He was never married. Funeral terminal building. ported up to press time today. He arrangements are pending and The lieutenant - governor said our which was driven by Const. Robert Sample. The driver of the other car, a juvenile girl, suffered minor lacerations and abrasions. Damago to the small car was unestimated. Police

- Staff photo by Eugene Rose officials said investigation of the accident is continuing.

Honolulu disaster HONOLULU (AP) — A Canadian Pacific Air-

Thirteen escape

liner crashed and burned in an emergency landing at Honolulu International Airport today, killing 27 persons. Thirteen escaped with minor injuries. The Britannia turbine - pro-way construction area. The im- was received that next-of-kin pact scattered bulldozers and had been notified. earth-moving machines.

tangled steel and ashes. ver, were among them.

and Australia. Minutes the greater Vancouver area after takeoff the pilot radioed Pilot Jennings had crashed the Honolulu tower that he had before, but was lucky. heading back.

LT.-GOV. ARRIVES AT DIGBY — B.C. Lt.-Gov. George Pearkes ed to veer left just before touch- passenger were killed but Jening down on what Federal Avia- nings was thrown clear. tion Agency officials said was a Plant, ADC, RCN, C. G. Dixon, secretary and A/C G. G. Truscott, | gines." Air Officer Commanding 5 Air Division (B.C.), arrived about noon The leftward slipping plunged aboard an RCAF Dakota DC-3. The party was taken to HMCS the aircraft into the runway |construction equipment. The im-| pact explosion spread flames and __ Staff photo by Gary Oakes chunks of fuselage and engines over hundreds of yards. The crash was the worst civilian air disaster in Honolulu history. Sixty-six died in March, 1955, when a United States military air transport service plane 'crashed in mountains near the Parisiphendian Parisiphend Inchesinglicated improve-The 13 survivors in the tail 6 p.m. July 29.

section broke off.

were Lt Comm. Plant, ADC, killed.

Commanding 5 Air Division Aeronautics Board investigators ley Island to Hankin Rock. the port of Prince Rupert today. | Shortly after Lt.-Gov. Pearkes day. Even airline officials were point of South Spicer Island, to Selling on the exchange: Attu boarded the vessel, the Saguenay barred from talking with them a fishing boundary sign estab-

than an hour. The four engines Hawk (Grant Point) on Porcher large at 36.7 cents a pound and Lt.-Gov. Pearkes said the first were ripped out of their wing Island to the most northerly 1,000 pounds of this at 17 cents time he was in Prince Rupert was sockets. They rolled for hundreds point of Gibson Island, and then in the pilot's section.

"The engines were still burning | land separated from the plane, Wreckage was everywhere.

land Mayor P. J. Lester before juries." being driven to the Digby Island! Names of the New Zealand Friday morning. dock and boarding the Nanaimo, and Australian passengers were peller aircraft crashed in a run-being withheld here until word

Survivors among the crew were The exploding plane was sliced Andrea Johnston, Ursula Huebin two by the massive constructioner, Nancy Chalmers who was tion machinery. The plane's formerly in Prince Rupert and front section was reduced to Harry Soukop, all of Vancouver. Crew members killed when the All 13 survivors were in the plane crashed while making an tail section. Three stewardesses emergency landing were identiand the purser, all from Vancou- fied as Capt. A. Giguere, Capt. W. T. Jennings, FO C. J. Nor-The airliner, Empress of Lima, ton, FO. D. Aldred, Navigator R. had left Honolulu only 41 min-G. Hill and R. D. McLennan and utes earlier for Fiji, New Zea- Second Officer G. E. Farr, all of feathered No. 1 engine and was He piloted a CPA flying boat which crashed in May, 1953, at The big silver aircraft appear- Prince Rupert. A stewardess and Jennings served with the "routine landing on three en-RCAF during the Second World War, later joined CPA.

closings

section were thrown clear of "All waters of the Nass River burning wreckage when the tail salmon gillnet area, salmon purse seine Area 3, Skeena River sal-Some of these survivors, who mon gillnet area, salmon purse tescaped any visible injury, were seine Area 4 and the waters of With the lieutenant - governor unaware that anyone had been Beaver Passage and Ogden Channel and waters bounded on the RCN, C. G. Dixon, secretary and Survivors were taken to Trip-west by an imaginary straight A/C G G Truscott, Air Officer ler Army Hospital. U.S. Civil line from Baird Point to McCau-

were to question them later to- "Then to the most southerly lished on the north shore of The wreckage burned for more Spicer Island, then to Sparrow a pound, sold to Atlin; Deep Sea in 1911 while he was a member of feet, leaving a fiery wake. Leasterly in a straight line to a Two pilots, two first officers, fishing boundary sign establish-33.7 cents a pound, 4,500 pounds. He said at that time he was on a second officer, and two navi-led on the mainland opposite, and gators apparently died instantly on the south by a straight line drawn across Grenville Channel U.S. Air Force men at adjoin-| from Bonwick Point on Pitt Ising Hickam Air Force Base were land to a fishing boundary sign Lt.-Gov Pearkes said he was first at the scene. They found on the mainland shore opposite "nniazed" at the city's new air- survivors wandering aimlessly. and a straight line drawn from A former fisherman of this port on Digby Island He met with "It sounded like it was just Strouts Point on McCauley Is-Isaac Angus MacDonald, 40, of area Fritz Peterson, 78, of Oona airport manager O C Fisher and Outside the window and we land across the northern entment driver, was suspended on Kincolith, was believed to have River died in hospital Saturday Russel Neill, officer in charge of thought it was an accident at rance to Patral Canal, to the radio telecommunications, De- our base," said Airman Ray Fish- fishing boundary sign on the I shore of Pitt Island.

Cars collide

A car driven by Clifford Rud-"A couple of women came run- land of 1251 Water Street was in He spoke briefly with Prince ning by and said they had been collision with another car driven Rupert MLA William H. Murray aboard They didn't have any in- by Leonard Ryan of Port Ed-

The extent of damage to both tears was about $50.

Prince Rupert has now I gone 136 days without a fatal traffic accidenti and 457 days without a fire fatality.

WEATHER

Cloudy and cooler temorrow. Light winds. Low tonight and high Tuesday 55 and 65. Daily News readings: Temperature at noon ... 63

Harometer, rising 30.2

Tuesday, July 24, 1962 (Pacific Standard Time) 06:46 10.5 feet 5.0 feet 00:477 8.0 feet 12:53

and a special control of the second

Paris-Marseilles express train jumped the tracks atop a viaduct near here today and official reports from the scene listed at least 30 dead and 100 injured.

TOKYO (#) --- Communist China accused Indian troops today of firing on three Chinese military outposts during the last week in the disputed Ladakh region. It said such actions have caused grave tension along the China-India border.

TAIPEL (#) - Typhoon Kate lost its punch Monday after leaving more than 30,000 persons homeless in Formosa and The Philippines. Thirty persons were reported missing in a boat collision off Mindoro in The Philippines.

Prayda claimed today the Soviet MOSCOW (Renters) Union decided to resume nuclear tests 'in the interests of all mankind, in support of universal peace."

WASHINGTON (#) - President Konnedy told an American-European audience on live television today that "I cannot report progress" toward a Berlin settlement with Russia and this is a "source of concern and danger to us all."