MARRIAGES

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Keays, 2631 Kaer Road, Haney, B.C., formerly of Prince Rupert, announce the marriage of their daughter Mary Joan, to Mr. T. E. (Ted) Wright, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Wright of New Westminster, B.C., on July 29th in the Lutheran Church, New Westminster. (1t)

IN MEMORIAM

FORD — In loving memory of Jerry, who was accidentally killed September 2nd, 1953.

"Thy will be done" seems hard to say
When one we loved so was taken away.
So today, in our memory book, we gently
Turn a page—and hope to understand."

Ever remembered and sadly missed by Aunt Irene, Uncle Sam and Cousin Blanche. (1tp)

FORD — Remembering today and every day as we do, our beloved kid son Jerry, who left us so suddenly September 2, 1953.

We miss him so that boy of ours
So carefree, bright and gay;
It's so hard to know he won't be in
To laugh and tease today.
But God knew best, we trust His will
To do all things in love,
Lord fit our lives down here below
To meet our boy above."

Sadly missed and longed for by
Mom and Dad

Karpuk, Wirkowski Transferred Two Days Before Big-4 Opening

Pete Karpuk and Nobby Wirkowski are going home again.

Karpuk returns to the football team on which he gained his bit of notoriety, and Nobby visits the hometown that gave him his worst razzings.

Karpuk, 29-year-old backfielder who originated the "Karpuk Play," was picked up on waivers by Ottawa Rough Riders of the Big Four Union Thursday night from Hamilton Tiger-Cats. The deal was made two days before the Big Four opens its 1955 12-game schedule.

Karpuk will not see action when Rough Riders start off the season tomorrow against Alouettes at Montreal. He suffered a broken bone in his hand in training.

Karpuk went to Hamilton last year after spending six seasons with Rough Riders. Several years ago he dashed from the bench to tackle a Toronto Argonaut player who was running unimpeded for a touchdown. At that time there were no rules to cover such a play. They were changed so that a referee could award a touchdown.

While Rough Riders tackle the Als, Toronto fans will get a look at Wirkowski in Hamilton uniform for the first time since he was cut by Argonauts after the 1954 season.

At Varsity Stadium Nobby used to get catcalls because he wouldn't run with the ball. The fans may see a big difference because Hamilton coach Carl Voyles has given Wirkowski the go ahead to use his legs as well as his arm.

The Big Four teams play again Monday. Argonauts go against the Tiger-Cats at Hamilton while Als travel to Ottawa for a night engagement against Rough Riders.

Four weekend games are scheduled in the Western Interprovincial Football Union. British Columbia Lions go against Blue Bombers at Winnipeg and Saskatchewan Roughriders meet the Eskimos at Edmonton Saturday. On Monday it's Lions at Regina and Winnipeg against the Stampeders at Calgary.

Pair Facing Drug Charges After Roundup

VANCOUVER (CP) — George Elridge, 41-year-old truck driver and salesman Allen West, 27, both transients, were charged Thursday with narcotics possession after six suspects were arrested late Wednesday.

Police said the six — three of them women — were arrested following a five-hour vigil by detectives over a known narcotics cache. Two women and the third man were released. One woman was still being held. The others were released.

Contents of 48 capsules seized from the cache by police were analyzed as heroin.

Meanwhile, the third person of 32 suspects rounded up Aug. 9 was convicted in police court today on a charge of selling narcotics.

John Madden, 35, a transient, was found guilty by Magistrate Oscar Orr when he said he had no evidence after having been remanded earlier. Madden said he was an addict.

Special drug prosecutor Wilfred Heffernan said Madden had been convicted of a similar offence in Vancouver in 1950 and had been sentenced to three years. He was remanded to Sept. 6 for sentence.

That date was also set by Magistrate Orr for the hearing of manufacturer Fred Collins, 46, charged with possession of narcotics for the purpose of trafficking.

Collins was arrested after police watched a 200-capsule drug cache last week. He is free on $10,000 bail.

Collins earlier put up $10,000 of $20,000 bail set for Lucien Mayer of Vancouver, one of five charged with attempting to murder self-confessed drug addict Thomas Kenna.

Bail of $10,000 was also set for Marcel Fronette, no fixed address, who with Mayer and five others is charged with conspiring to sell narcotics. Fronette is also one of the five charged in the Kinna beating.

FIFTY YEARS of progress and development, enriched by wheat and oil, have brought Alberta out of the wilds of a frontier economy into a province of growing wealth. By contrast, with the early days of gold panning this photo shows a wheat field with an oil well looming behind it, a common sight in the province. Last year's agricultural production reached $519,369,000 while petroleum in 1954 was worth an estimated $227,872,000. Fifty years ago when Alberta became a province, agricultural production was $16,428,000 and there was no oil industry. (CP from National Film Board)
