WINNIPEG (CP)—W. J. Davidson, 75, was 13 when he quit school and took up apprenticeship as a bricklayer at Owen Sound, Ont. Now he's in his 62nd year at bricklaying and has no thought of retiring. "The union has a pension for old and needy members but that's not for me yet," he says.

Little League Registration Starts Saturday

Registration forms for Prince Rupert Little League players can be picked up this Saturday at the Civic Centre.

A booth will be open at the Centre between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday and all boys planning on playing in Little League this year must pick up their registration forms at this time, Bob Morris, Little League vice-president said today.

Forms must be filled out and returned. For this purpose the booth will be re-opened for the same hours April 2 at the Civic Centre.
