Seattle Breaks Losing Streak By Defeating Fighting Brandon

SEATTLE (AP)—Seattle broke its long losing streak which has persisted since Nov. 28, with a convincing 4-2 defeat of the Brandon Regals in Wednesday night's only Western Hockey League game.

The Americans got away ahead, aided by a Rookie, Max Sturm. He scored his first home goal of the season at 10:59 of the first period on a long shot. The Regals got goal number two when Howie Milford converted passes from Norman Johnson and Elliott Charley at 3:10 of the second stanza.

The Americans took the bloom off that goal at 12:07, as Ray Kinasewich scored his first in a long dry spell.

The game clincher came at 7:13 of the third period. It was Kinasewich again, assisted by Guyle Fielder and Eddie Dorohoy. Fielder grabbed the puck on the face off 16 seconds later and whanged it in for insurance.

Brandon tried a brief revival at 11:55. Ray Manson, free as a breeze while Seattle was looking elsewhere, skated in for the Regals second tally. It was the last gasp and the 1,714 fans saw no more scoring although the Regals put on a stiff fight to the final gun. There are no games scheduled in the WHL tonight.

Ray Windle Captures Shoot Honors
