Grotto Boosts League Lead With Wins Over Clothiers

Grotto Cigar Store in A division of the Men's Five Pin Bowling League regained their winning ways Monday by taking three points from Hills and Williams and boosting their first place lead over runner-ups, Howe and McNulty, to eight points. The bottom five teams in the division tightened up to such an extent that only four points separate them.

George Shenton, anchor man for Cooks Jewellers was the outstanding bowler for the night when his high three total of 809 set a new record. Only two other players in the division have rolled over 800. They are John Laporte of Cooks with 802 and Gordon Freeman of Grotto with 806.

Adrian Tambourini of Grotto rolled high single game of the evening with 317 just edging out runner-up Shenton with 314.

Gordon Cameron of Hills and Williams was runner-up to Shenton for high three game with 762 pins.

All games in A division were very close. Thom Sheet Metal won their third game from Cooks with a mere four pins while Philpott-Evitt grabbed their second game from Howe and McNulty by 18 pins. In many cases games were won by 40 pins or less.

In B division, Babcock Fisheries rolled into second place by making a clean sweep against Dusteaters and narrowing the Esso Fuel Service team's first place lead to four points.

The oilmen held their own however, taking three points from the seventh place Electricians.

In individual honors, Charlie Rudland of Babcock Fisheries captured high single game with 290 while runner-up scores were shared by Eric Christison of Esso and Ronnie Tubb of Skeena Beverages both with 282.

Tubb's 677 took high three game while Christison was a close second with 663.
