Home Nursing Examination To Be Held Next Thursday

Examinations in the Thursday night St. John Ambulance Home Nursing Course conducted weekly at Prince Rupert Civil Defence Headquarters will be held next Thursday, it was announced today by course spokesman Mrs. J. D. Watt.

Oral and practical exams will be conducted by Miss Elizabeth Clement, either at the Prince Rupert General Hospital or the Nurses Home for the 20 women participating in the course, which has been under the instruction of Mrs. Ernest Turner and Mrs. John Saunders.

Training was completed by the Thursday night group February 2 and pupils held a surprise party for their instructor: following the regular instruction period. Tea and refreshments were served and a gift presentation made to the instructors. Mrs. Saunders was unable to attend.

Home nursing classes have also been held regularly on Tuesday nights and further Thursday sessions will begin again in the near future. Those interested in taking the course were urged by Mrs. Watt to get in touch with Robert McKay, Prince Rupert Civil Defence Co-Ordinator.

"FULFILLING THE WILL OF GOD"

Matt. 19:16 to 28, "To Obtain Eternal Life".

A young man once came to Jesus and asked, "Good Master, what shall I do that I may obtain eternal life?"

Jesus suggested that he keep the commandments. He said, "this have I done from my youth up, what lack I yet?"

Jesus said, if thou wilt be perfect go sell all that thou hast, and thou shalt have treasure in Heaven, and come and follow Me.

When the young man heard this he went away sorrowful; for he had great possessions.

Some of man's weaknesses in the world today that are depicted in this lesson are as follows:

Trusting in riches rather than God: We think of Solomon in this regard. (Matthew 19:24) "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of heaven."

This might sound far fetched but remember all things are possible with God. Remember this does not mean that a rich person can't get to Heaven. But there is a danger in being rich, and forgetting the all powerful God. In other words the rich person can often make their money their God, and nothing else matters as long as they have lots of their God. Let us remember we can't take any of it with us there for it only makes for something temporal.

Trusting in things seen rather than in things not seen: We think of Thomas, how he doubted that Jesus had really risen from the grave. As long as Jesus was with him in the flesh he believed, but when he could no longer see him he didn't believe that He could ever see Him again in the flesh. We are told to "set our affections on things above, not on things on the earth."

Working for temporal things rather than lasting things. The things of this world are temporal, they will pass away, but the things of heaven are eternal. Why not start today and work for Heavenly wages. It is good insurance for eternity.

Thank God there is a way to conquer man's weakness. Sell all thou hast. Humble yourselves before God. Give up all for Him. Let go and let God have His way and you will find that peace that passes all understanding.

Chalice Line Paris Latest

By PEGGY MASSIN

PARIS (Reuters) — Genevieve Fath's new "Chalice Line," which spotlights the top of the silhouette with rounded and emphasized breasts, highlighted the end Friday of the top Paris house showings for spring.

The spring collections were marked by fitted, natural waistlines. In addition, there were flying panels, floating boleros and general softening of severity

In evening wear, the whole picture is summed up in one word—romantic. Silhouettes are romantic with the return of full billowing skirts, of gossamer sheer as chiffon, organza and point d'esprit.

There is a 19th-century revival of romanticism in the rose motifs—roses caught in looped ribbon belts, fastened to broad-brimmed picture hats, or worn at the decollete.

Fath's Chalice Line emphasizes the top of the silhouette with full breast treatments marked by a horizontal seam set directly across the bosom, molding the high-set line. The rib cage is slim and fitted with the natural waist marked by fabric set in belts.
