Olympic Bobsled Crown Won By Fearless Swiss

CORTINA d'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—Frank Kapus, the fearless Swiss pilot who broke his back in a race here two years ago, won the Olympic four-man bobsled championship today with two glittering runs down the perilous hole-pocked Mount Tofana course.

He virtually clinched Switzerland's third title of the Games with a record-shattering third heat of 1:17.09, and then sewed it up with an 1:18.16 final trip for a four-heat total time of 5:10.44.

The 45-year-old Swiss veteran led the pack in Friday's two heats with a total of 2:35.19. Total times for the four heats decided the championship.

Four big holes were gouged on major curves in the chute after the third runs and the course looked so hazardous that Kapus, after his third run, said he might not make the final run because "somebody might get killed."

Immediately after his victory, Kapus announced his retirement from competitive bobsledding.

Italy's Eugenio Monti, a 28-year-old former ski champion clinched his second silver medal by taking second with a total of 5:122.0. He had finished second in the two-man bobs, won by Italy's Lamberto Dalla Costa.

The American No. 1 sled, piloted by Art Tyler, 40-year-old Rochester, N.Y., physicist, was third in 5:12.39.

Parker Wins Grotto Cup

Ted Parker won the Grotto Cigar Store Curling Trophy last night at the Prince Rupert Curling Club with an overwhelming 18-5 victory over Hal Kellough.

The Parker rink, of Ted, Bill McLean, Dave Macphee and Bob Eby advanced to the finals after taking a 13-9 win off Bob Rudderham. Parker, two down at the eight end scored a five-ender in the ninth for the win.

Kellough's rink of Bill Lambie, Miner Simundson and Chappie Smith advanced to meet Parker after taking an 8-6 win off Warnie Peterson. Kellough was one down going home in the hotly contested game.

Towne Hallers Gain Easy Win

EDMONTON (AP) — The Edmonton Towne Hallers continued their winning ways Friday night, trouncing Winnipeg Kodiaks 83-64 before a crowd of 800 in the first game of a weekend exhibition basketball series. The second game will be played tonight.

The Macintosh brothers, Norm and Don, combined to lead the Hallers by scoring 20 and 18 points, respectively. Tom Karren had 15 points.

Centre Herb Olafsson led the Kodiaks with 21 points.

Trailing early in the game, the Hallers struck back for a 40-32 half-time lead.

In the second half Edmonton, led by Don Macintosh, applied the pressure and at one time had a 25-point lead. The Kodiaks appeared to tire.

Haller coach Maury Van Vliet gave his second-stringers a chance to play through most of the closing minutes of the game.

Forward Dick Bevan of the Kodiaks was hurt early in the second half when he fell to the floor in a scramble under Edmonton's basket. But he's expected to play the next game.

LOW NUMBERS

VICTORIA (CP) — Attorney-General Robert Bonner is studying how much extra cost is involved in supplying low-number auto licence plates to applicants. He said three courses are open: abolish the system, make a special charge, or continue as at present.
