While discussing with a friend of mine recently about his re-Lintionship to God, he sad, "I do not believe there is a God, 'I that the Bible is inspired."

Knowing that he liked to rea-'I son things out, I said, "Let's consider some important points. Lets suppose you are right, for I now. I gather that you would | '| like all Christian influence taken out of the world and that no Church be allowed in the town in which you live?"

"Oh no," said he. "I think !. that without the influence of the teachings of the Bible the sink to a degrading low." "I am sure you will agree with me," said I, "that for one to embrace the teachings of the Bible, he will become a better citizen and neighbor because of its strong teaching against lying, stealng, killing and living a wicked life. He is taught to be truthful, honest, kind, and thoughtful of others, and in the lend he is promised a home in heaven with Christ and all those, that love Him throughout eternity. He has peace of mind knowing that all is well between

"Now consider what one would | gain by rejecting the Bible and its teachings.' There is a rest-Hessness and a continual seeking i for something to satisfy the I soul.' There is no real peace, nothing to look forward to but emptiness and a fearful dread of the wrath to come upon all | who reject Christ.

"Now just because I believe the Bible and embrace its teachings. doesn't necessarily make it so, does it?" "Definitely not", was his emphatic reply. "Just because you do not be-
