Students

and by Monday inter-house basketball "was ready to roll."

WELL-ORGANIZED

Sonja Selvig said the newly-formed athletic council gave students the opportunity of working together instead of as individuals. It presented a well-organized system of inter-house sports which included softball, badminton, volleyball and basketball.

Club activities, all of which are carried out outside of school hours were outlined by Julie Prockter. Clubs included boating, drama, music, glee, band, speakers, tumbling, radio, teachers, library, curling, newspaper, dancing, gardening, orchestra, badmintin, photography and junior Red Cross clubs.

The orchestra was planning to present "HMS Pinafore" in the spring and the drama club was hoping to perform three one-act plays.

TO REDUCE ACCIDENTS

Purpose of the boating club, she said, was to cut down accidents and "if one life was saved by students learning proficiency with boats then the club had fulfilled its purpose."

Other well-known Booth student speakers who addressed the meeting were Judy Lloyd who described her Odd Fellows' Pilgrimage to the United Nations, Warrant Officer Roy Sieber of Prince Rupert Air Cadet squadron 559, who spoke and showed slides of his exchange visit to the United States, Don Martinusen gave a brief outline of his visit to Ottawa in the Rotary Club's "Adventure in Citizenship."

Added entertainment was provided by the High School band, under the direction of music teacher Gordon Griffin. Selections played were "Colonel Bogey," "Fete Triumphal" and "Pacific Grandeur."

The program was launched by Mrs. R. E. Mortimer, president of the PTA.

In The Centre

By RUSTY

Bong-Bong-Bong-tweet! and tonight the running shoes will be burning up the hard wood again, as the long standing International feud between basketballers from Prince Rupert and Ketchikan gets underway. There's a great deal of suspense attached to this series as information on both line-ups has been as sparse as Rupert sunshine. From Ketchikan a few familiar faces are certain to appear. May the best team win.

From punch bag corner, local boxers are sorry to lose their trainer, Joe Ward, after six and a half years with the club. Joe has received a detachment transfer from the RCMP and is leaving our fair city Saturday morning. Although he regrets leaving, Joe says, in very British jargon it's time to "let someone else have a go at it." No decision has been made as to who will be taking over the training room. Good-bye, good-luck and thanks Joe.

Christmas is coming . . . and Rupert folks can warm up with the talented Eric Christmas and his partner Anna Reiser, on stage Saturday. Their repertoire includes comedy characters such as Madame Hoomperdink and dramatic sketches from Shakespeare and Dickens to mention just a few items from their varied program.

A word from Rowley Miles—his "Adults Dancing for Dancing Sake club" for members gets under way Saturday night, with Norah Thompson's music. Come and trot, waltz, tango and dance, dance, dance!

Remember Remembrance Day services will be held inside the Centre if rain doesn't permit the Court House ceremonies. Otherwise all activities are non-existent tomorrow except International basketball. See you at your Civic Centre.

70 Persons Rescued

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — A 70-year-old woman and her daughter were among 70 persons rescued from a blazing hotel here overnight.

Three firemen were injured, none seriously, when a wall collapsed inside the three-storey, 57-room Premier Hotel.

Damage was estimated at up to $150,000 but cost of replacing the structure would be about $200,000, said Ernie Davies, one of the hotel's three owners.

"I have a strong hunch the fire was deliberately set," he told reporters.

Remember when..

By The Canadian Press

Gerard Cote of St. Hyacinthe, Que., won the United States national AAU marathon championship 15 years ago today at Yonkers, N.Y., finishing in 2:34:06.2, first of 38 who completed the course. Cote had failed by narrow margins in the four preceding marathons.
